ANOTHER FEATURE TO BEATTIE CASE

Dairyman Tells About His Suspicious Actions on the Scene of Murder.

MORE ABOUT BINFORD WOMAN

Chesterfield Man Confronted Prisoner in Jail—Story in Afternoon Paper Created Sensation Yesterday.

Richmond, Va., July 25.—The feature of today in the case of the alleged murder of Mrs. Louise Wellford Owen Beattie by her husband, Henry Clay Beattie, Jr., on the Midlothian turnpike last Tuesday night, was the fact that Roland Sydnor, the Chesterfield county dairyman, who, with his son, Elmer, passed an automobile that night standing at the very spot where the murder was, a short time after it was committed, was taken to the jail and confronted Henry Beattie, who he thereupon positively declared was the occupant of the car.

When Beattie left his home for the home of Thomas Owen, he should have arrived in a few minutes. As a matter of fact, it took him over an hour to make the trip and it is supposed that he drove up the turnpike, waited for an opportunity, hid the shot gun, which he had carried with him, and then went back and got his wife.

"My son and I were going home," Mr. Sydnor says. "It was a few minutes after 8 o'clock and it was still light. Both my son and I remarked on the car. It passed us, went up the road a short distance, turned around, ran back a few yards and stopped. Only one person was in the car—a young man. I had never seen Beattie, but inasmuch as the behavior of the man looked suspicious—and I remarked up it to my son—we took a good look at him.

"After stopping his car he got out and appeared to tinker with one of the automobile tires. We were then able to get a better view of the man. I am convinced he was Beattie. When I saw Beattie a few days later at the coroner's inquest I recognized him."

One of the afternoon papers today created a sensation by printing in an extra that Beulah Binford, the "other woman" in the case, had said in response to interrogatories from detectives, that Henry Beattie, Jr., had made to her a short time before the murder the following statement:

"Of course, I have no intention of spending my life with Louise. I may have to live with her as long as my father is alive, but just as soon as the old man dies—Say, Kid, you and I will run away together. I don't know whether we can get married or not, but we will take a chance any way."

This was seized upon by the public as practically establishing the motive for the hideous crime of Tuesday night and fixing the crime on Henry, but counsel for defense in the case immediately pronounced the publication a fairy tale intended to make sentiment against the accused husband and so the sensation has quieted down without producing much effect except to have provided a momentary fillip for the new somewhat jaded excitement over the murder.

It is stated that Beulah Binford will probably in the course of the next few days, be taken from the Henrico county jail and confined in a jail in another part of the State, in order to separate her from Henry Beattie and prevent any possible exchange of messages between her and the man who is now in the same jail with her.

Beulah is, however, receiving voluminous mail and telegraph communications from all directions offering her everything from marriage to big time in vaudeville, but none of that $1,000 bail required to procure her liberation.

No one is now allowed to visit any one of the three prisoners connected with the Beattie case except by special permission of counsel in the case. All was quiet at the jail today. Nothing came from Paul Beattie, the cousin of Henry, who bought the gun that ended the life of Mrs. Beattie, and Henry, the accused husband maintained the apparent indifference to what is in store for him that has characterized him from the beginning.

Special Agent Scherer, is now, by agreement, among all concerned, in full charge of the gathering of further evidence for the commonwealth in the case.

RICH MANUFACTURER DEAD.

Burr S. Peck, 80, Recently Eloped with Waitress of 20.

New Haven, Conn., July 25.—Burr S. Peck, a wealthy retired manufacturer, who came into prominence recently by his elopement with Miss Mae Brine, who was sixty years younger than he, is dead at his home heer after a long illness. He was eighty years old.

Peck and his young wife lived together only a few days when divorce proceedings were instituted by Peck, but the suit was afterwards withdrawn.

His eral estate, valued at upward of $100,000, will go to the young widow. She was a waitress in a Yale student boarding house at the time of her marriage.

ANOTHER TUMBLE FOR COTTON

Worst Smash of Season on Market Yesterday—Short Selling Caused Decline—Went Down About 40 Points.

New Orleans, July 25.—The worst smash of the season in the cotton market came today without any warning. The loss on the new crop months, the principal object of attack by the bear side amounted to exactly 40 points, or $2 a bale. August, in which all that is left of the old crop interest is centered, lost 30 points, or a dollar and a half a bale.

The decline was caused by heavy short-selling which hardly let up for a minute during the day. Under the pressure the market gave ground steadily and on the way down stop loss orders from those traders who had gone long in anticipation of the now long delayed reaction were constantly reached. This swelled the selling. The market had next to no support and what buying orders there were came from shorts who wanted to realize profits.

The decline began in Liverpool and that market was so much under expectations on the opening here that initial prices were 8 to 10 points down. Without anything that looked like a recovery or reaction of consequences, prices fell until on the actual trading they were 30 to 40 points under yesterday's final quotations. The close was 14 to 15 points down, bids and offers considered.

New York, July 25.—Notwithstanding the big declines of the past week or so, the cotton market became sensationally weak again today with all deliveries except July, making new low records for the season under a renewal of general selling inspired by unfavorable foreign trade advices and increasing confidence in an August bureau report for showing an enormous crop next season. The new crop positions were the weakest, selling about 35 to 40 points under the closing figures of last night with January contracts touching 11.40, or a decline of $11.90 per bale from the high records of last month, while August broke to 11.40.

Reports that the Indian monsoon had broken unfavorably and that the possibility of a famine in India had exerted a very unfavorable influence on the Manchester market, inspired a good deal of selling while the market was also influenced by rumors that the forthcoming report of the National Ginners' Association would make the condition of the crop about 90 per cent. comparing with the government report of 88.2 per cent. last month.

There was heavy covering below 11.50 for the new crop, but the market closed weak and at practically the lowest on new crop months which showed losses of from 35 to 40 points. Old crop positions closed unchanged to 19 points lower.

MOROCCAN SITUATION ACUTE.

Visit of Atlantic Fleet to Norway Suddenly Called Off.

London, July 25.—That the situation occasioned by the Moroccan difficulty has become acute is indicated in the sudden order issued by the admiralty today cancelling the projected visit of the Atlantic fleet to Norway. The battleship squadron under Rear Admiral Sir John R. Jellicoe should have left Cromarty tonight for Norwegian waters. Instead it has been ordered to remain there until Friday and then proceed to Portsmouth.

It is also reported that the crews of the several ships of the home fleet have been ordred to hold themsives in readinss for mergency service.

Prmier Asquith has promised a statement in Parliament Thursday on the Moroccan situation. According to advices from Berlin, negotiations between France and Germany were proceeding smoothly until Chancellor Lloyd-George's speec hon July 21st, which was interpreted as a warning to Germany in the present Moroccan controversy. The German newspapers now declare that it is impossible for Germany to modify her demands in the face of the threat implied in that speech because German public opinion would never tolerate concessions which had the appearance of being extorted from Germany under pres sure. Much significance is attached to an article published by the Kolnische Zeitung, declaring that it is no longer a colonial but a European question.

The London stock exchange and the Paris and Berlin bourses are all disturbed on account of Moroccan rumors and considerable business was transacted at Lloyds today insuring against risks of war between Great Britain and Germany.

WELLMAN GIVES UP PROJECT.

Vanniman Will Attempt Ocean Dirigible Flight.

Cheyenne, Wyo., July 25.—Information that Walter Wellman has given up the project of making a second attempt to cross the Atlantic in a dirigible balloon, transferring the management to Melvin Vaniman, chief engineer of the last expedition, was obtained here today through a personal letter from Mr. Vaniman to J. Lovette Rockwell. Mr. Vaniman wrote that he has a dirigible well on the way to completion at Atlantic City and believes the expedition will be successful.

Richmond, Va., July 25.—Ground was broken though without ceremony today for the proposed new buildings of Richmond College, a few miles west of the city and work on the structures will be pushed it is understood, with all possible speed.

DEMOCRATS START TARIFF REVISION

Measure Reducing Schedules on Manufactures of Cotton Ratified.

COMES UP IN HOUSE TODAY

Vigorous Effort Made by Many Democrats to Upset Party Legislation—Resolution by Carolina Congressman.

Washington, July 25.—Democrats of the House of Representatives after a prolonged caucus today, ratified by more than a two-thirds majority the cotton tariff revision bill drafted by the Democratic members of the Ways and Means Committee reducing by nearly one-half the schedules of the Payne-Aldrich law on manufactures of cotton. The bill will be introduced in the House tomorrow and its passage expedited.

The bill was not ratified without protest and vigorous effort was made by many Democrats to upset the party legislative programme and to prevent adjournment of the special session of Congress by blazing away with tariff revision all down the line, even if such action would throw the session into the late Fall.

Representative Webb, of North Carolina, offered a resolution urging postponement of action on the cotton measure until the Ways and Means Committee should first report bills reducing the tariffs on iron and steel articles, sugar, meats and flour, brick and dyes and dye-stuffs. After his resolution was voted down, other members pleaded for extension of the tariff programme, urging especially revision of the iron and steel, rubber and sugar schedules.

Though all resolutions were defeated, no decisive action on the time of adjournment was taken. That question will be settled by the House Democrats at a later caucus, after it is determined just what the Senate will do with the pending House tariff bills.

Representative Webb, who represents a district in which are located 110 cotton mills, made a plea for the manufacturer in speaking on his resolution.

The committee estimates that under the new rates, the revenues to be derived in 12 months from the cottor tariff will be $10,599,000, a decrease of a little more than $3,000,000 from last year under the Payne-Aldrich law.

Cotton clothing duties are reduced from 40 to 30 and 25 per cent.; cotton cloth, not mercerized or bleached, cut to 15, 20 and 25 per cent. in various grades; and cloth composed of silk or mercerized cut from 42.46 to 25 per cent.

Some of the proposed new duties follow:

Cotton thread, craded yarn, warps, etc., 10 to 15 per cent. advalorem; Payne rate 32.17. Spool thread, crochet, darning and embroidery cottons on spools, 15 per cent.; Payne rate 23.63. Cotton cloth, not bleached or colored average rate of 24.51; Payne rate 42.46. Hankerchiefs or mufflers, 30 per cent.; Payne rate 59.05.

Clothing, ready-made and articles of wearing apparel of every description composed of cotton or vegetable fibre, 30 per cent.; Payne rate 50.02. Sheets, 25 per cent.; Payne rate 50.02. Plushes, velvet, velveteens, corduroys 30 per cent.; Payne rate 54.33. Curtains, table covers, tapestries, upholstery goods, 35 per cent.; Payne rate 50. Stockings and socks, machine made, 20 per cent.; Payne rate 30.

Stockings and socks, hand made, 40 per cent.; Payne rate 71.57. Men's and boys' cotton gloves, knitted or woven 35 per cent.; Payne rate 71.57. Shirts, sweaters, and underwear, 30 per cent.; Payne rate 59. Bandings, belting, bindings, garters, ribbons, tire fabrics, suspenders, lamp wicks, 25 per cent.; Payne rate 36.97. Towels, doilies, quilts, blankets, mops, wash rags, etc., 25 per cent.; Payne rate 45.

LILLIAN GRAHAM LOCATED

Girl Who Shot W. E. D. Stokes Said She Was Kidnapped.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 25.—Lillian Graham under indictment and at liberty on $10,000 bail for the shooting of W. E. D. Stokes, of New York, who disappeared last Saturday night, was located at a hotel here tonight by Chief of Police McCabe. She said she had been kidnapped.

According to Miss Graham's story to Chief McCabe, she left the home of her sister, Mrs. John Singleton, Saturday night to go to a store.

"When I got to the corner," she is said to have told the police, "a man approached and threw over my head a cloth that smelled like tar. I struggled and tried to make an outcry, but was unable to do so. I was pulled along into a motor vehicle and remember getting inside where I heard a man and woman talking and saying something about "throat." That was the last I remember until I was shaken by the shoulder and looking up heard a conductor say: 'Poughkeepsie.'"

At the hotel Miss Graham registered as Lillian Clark.

MORE ABOUT STEEL LEARNED

Huston Says Oral Agreements Among Manufacturers Now Will Keep Up Prices — Also Asked About "Gary Dinners."

Washington, July 25.—That through oral agreements steel manufacturers now keep up prices and avoid "destructive competition" just as effectively as they did under the ironclad contract of the American Steel Plate Association from 1900 to 1904, practically was admitted today by A. F. Huston, president of the Lukes Iron & Steel Company, before the House Steel Trust Investigating Committee. The witness said that now from time to time one manufacturer will say to another, "my price will be so and so until further notice," but that there is no general agreement.

"There is a feeling among the companies, however," he said, "that nothing should be done to injure a fellow without giving him notice."

Mr. Huston described the steel plate association which he said was organized to obtain reasonable prices. The association not only fixed prices, he declared, but allotted a certain proportion of production to each of its eleven constituent companies. The witness said the organization was abandoned in 1904 because there was so much wrestlessness and uneasiness and talk about its illegality."

Mr. Huston identified a printed copy of the original agreement, all copies of which were supposed to have been burned in 1900 under his direction because it was "not in proper form" and testified that the association operated from 1900 to 1904 under a similar agreement, typewriter and uncopied.

Representative Beall, of Texas, Littleton, of New York, and Bartlett, of Georgia, all Democrats, plied the witness with questions, seeking to establish the fact that the steel companies, through "Gary dinners" and other conferences since 1904, have been accomplishing the purpose formerly carried out by the written agreement.

Mr. Huston insisted at first that prices were not discussed at the "Gary dinners" but upon having parts of a record of speeches delivered at one of the dinners read to him, qualified the statement by saying that prices were discussed only in a general sort of way.

The committee will hold a session tomorrow before leaving for New York, where the hearings will be resumed Thursday.

THE STEEL EARNINGS.

Quarterly Statement for Three Months Ending June 30th.

New York, July 25.—The quarterly statement of the United States Steel Corporation for the three months ending June 30th, last, issued today, gives earnings for that period of $28,108,520, and net earnings of $21,839,840. These figures compare with $23,519,203 and $20,001,817 net for the previous quarter and $40,170,960 and $33,880,755 net for the corresponding quarter of 1910. The statement as a whole was quite up to expectations and was favorably regarded by those who have followed the course of the industry during the current year. The earnings for May were slightly in excess of those for April, while June's output was much smaller than the other two months.

On the basis of today's returns earnings of the corporation for the first six months of the year were $51,627,723 as against $77,787,836 for the same period last year.

The surplus net income for the last quarter amounts to $1,869,177, which compares with $31,155 for the previous quarter, while that same item at the end of June last year amounted to $13,910,093.

The regular quarterly dividends of 1 3-4 per cent. on the preferred shares and 1 1-4 per cent. on the common were declared.

GEORGIA COTTON DAMAGED

Excessive Rains Have Destroyed the Chances for a Bumper Crop.

Atlanta, Ga., July 25.—The excessive rains recently have destroyed Georgia's chances of producing a bumper crop of cotton according to State Commissioner of Agriculture Hudson, who returned today from a tour of the State. "There has been entirely too much rain all over the State," declared Commissioner Hudson, "and there is no question but that much damage has been done to the crop of cotton."

LORIMER INQUIRY STILL EVENTFUL

Session Replete With Sharp Passages Between Attorney and Witness.

KEELEY ON THE STAND AGAIN

Tells of White Confession and Money Spent by Tribune in Carrying on Investigation—Funk-Hines Conversation.

Washington, July 25.—James Keeley, general manager of the Chicago Tribune, was subjected today to a fire of questions from Elbridge Hanecy, attorney for Senator Lorimer, about his testimony yesterday before the Senate Lorimer Committee. The session was replete with sharp passages between the attorney and witness.

Attorney Hanecy directed Mr. Keeley's attention to the vouchers, submitted to show how the Tribune spent $20,000 investigating the White confession. The attorney called attention to the bills of E. O. Phillips and G. T. O'Neill, reporters on the Tribune, who spent several hundred dollars in visiting members of the Legislature.

"Did you know that Mike Link had been in an insane asylum before he was elected to the Legislature?" asked Mr. Hanecy, when Mr. Link's name came up in this connection.

"I never heard it until you uttered it just now."

"Here are the bills of John Callan O'Laughlin," began Mr. Hanecy next. "He is former assistant secretary of State, and I suppose a high priced man, isn't he?"

"He is our representative in Washington and for his high price work he gets a high price."

Mr. O'Laughlin's bills amounted to $1,131, of which Mr. Keeley said over $800 was for stenographic work in the Lorimer case.

Mr. Hanecy asked Mr. Keeley when he had his second talk with Mr. Kohlsaat in regard to the Funk-Hines conversation at the Union League Club in Chicago, in which a Lorimer election fund was mentioned.

"I have no distinct recollection," was the response.

"Well, let us have your indistinct recollection."

Mr. Keeley replied it probably was a month later, he could not recall what was said. One thing he had in mind during the conversation, he said, was what made the 53 Democrats vote for Lorimer.

"You were thinking of the 53 Democrats rather than of the $100,000 that was supposed to have been raised?"

"My mind doesn't assimilate that question."

"Is that because of the $100,000 or the 53 Democrats?"

"It is because of the question."

"Did you think there was assimilation between the 53 Democrats and the $100,000?"

"I think there was both assimilation and digestion."

Mr. Keeley said he belonged to a little club in the Union League Club that had a room or two there, but he could not recall that the Funk story was discussed by it.

"It was discussed at the dining table, but it might have been at the other table, I don't know," said Mr. Keeley.

"What other table?"

"The round table, you know what I mean."

"Well, if it has not embarrassed you, answer this—" continued Mr. Hanecy. Mr. Keeley interjected that he was not embarrassed. "I am ahead of the game," he added triumphantly, without describing further just what kind of a table he meant. Mr. Keeley gave the White confession as his authority for an editorial about "bribery in the Legislature."

"And that has been discredited in every court in which White has appeared?" suggested Mr. Hanecy.

"There have been acquittals or nolle prossing of cases."

"The slate has been cleaned off except up in the offices of the Chicago Tribune?"

"Probably."

"Is that the only unclean thing up there?"

"Well, I don't know. You have been up there."

FIX BLAME FOR WRECK.

Railroad is Responsible and Engineer Negligent.

Bridgeport, Conn., July 25.—Coroner Wilson, in his finding on the wreck of the Federal express here on July 11th, in which 14 were killed, finds the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad criminally responsible and that Engineer Curtis was criminally negligent.

The wreck was caused by the trains taking short cross over at a righ rate of speed, which threw the engine and six cars off the tracks to the street below. The railroad is found negligent because they maintained a short cross over on fact express trunk lines and Curtis because he ran his train at such a high rate of speed over the cross-over.

Williamsport, Pa., July 25.—Word was received here tonight that Congressman George W. Knapp, of the 14th Pennsylvania District, died today in British Columbia. He was stricken while on a business trip.

COAST LINE SURGEONS MEET

Annual Session of the Association at Norfolk, Va., Dr. Thomas Presiding—More Than 100 Present.

Norfolk, Va., July 25.—With more than 100 present, the seventh annual session of the Association of Surgeons of the Atlantic Coast Line Railway opened in this city this morning at the Lynn Haven Hotel. Representatives were present from Virginia, North and South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama.

The body was presided over by Dr. G. G. Thomas, of Wilmington, N. C., chief surgeon and chairman of the executive committee.

There was a general discussion on "Fractures" led by Dr. J. M. Parrott, of Kinston, N. C.

One of the principal and most interesting talks of today's session was the address of Dr. C. P. Wertenbaker, of the Marine Hospital Service on "Railway Sanitation."

His address was replete with valuable suggestions regarding the individual drinking cup.

He said if the surgeons of all railways would help to correct unsanitary conditions that came under their notice the benefits to the country would be tremendous.

Tomorrow the surgeons with their wives and children will be given a trip around the harbor and through Hampton Roads.

Papers were read by Dr. R. E. Yellott, of Lynchburg; M. M. McCord, of Whigham, Ga.; and W. B. Ackerman, of Walterboro, S. C.

DARING TRIP OVER FALLS.

Bobby Leach Still Lives After His Thrilling Experience.

Niagara Fall, N. Y., July 25.—Bobby Leach, 49 years old, of Niagara Falls, Ont., this afternoon went over the Horse Shoe Falls in a barrel and still lives. Though he was severely battered and bruised in the drop of 158 feet over the brink of the cataract, he sustained only superficial injuries and tonight is able to be about his house. This is the second time in the history of the river that the cataract has been successfully navigated. Mrs. Anna Edson Taylor, of this city, made the trip in a barrel on October 24th, 1901, and came out alive.

Harrassed by the police on both sides of the river, Leach was forced this afternoon to make his start from LaSalle, two miles and a half above the cataract on the United States side. Two rivermen took him in a launch to Navy Island, where everything was made shipshape and Leach was placed in the barrel, a steel affair, 11 feet long, with ends of wood. Leach was hung in a canvas hammock. The barrel with its passenger was cast adrift just off the mouth of Chippewa creek, hardly above the brink of the Horse Shoe at 2:52 o'clock and was quickly caught by the rush of the upper rapids. When 500 yards from the brink the barrel was caught in the tremendous current and raced to the chasm.

Within 200 yards of the brink it struck hard against a rock, and a large section of the wooden end was broken off. As the barrel reached the crest at 3:13 o'clock it swung straight and went plunging down into the abyss on its long axis.

Hardly 30 seconds elapsed until it was seen, a red speck, careering in the spume below the cataract. With the terrific outrush of the Horse Shoe, caused by high water the barrel went floating down, tossing and tumbling in its passage towards the upper steel arch bridge. Frank Bender, of Chippewa, swam out to it with a rope and caught the barrel by one of its handles. From that point the barrel was towed ashore.

Leach was bleeding and appeared in a bad way, but once out of the barrel, he raised himself and waved to the crowds that lined the bank. He was badly exhausted and it was necessary to apply oxygen to revive him. He thought that his leg was broken, but examination showed that it was merely sprained.

"I minded the tumbling about the falls more than the big drop," said Leach. "Like to killed me the way I was tossed about before I hit the brink."

WOULD BAN SMOKING IN PUBLIC.

Non-Smoker's Protective League is Now Ready for Business.

New York, July 25.—Smoking of pipes, cigars and cigarettes in public and semi-public places must cease.

That mandate came today from the officers and members of the Non-Smokers' Protective League of America, whose articles of incorporations were approved by Supreme Court Justice Bischoff. Included in the array of officers and directors of the organization are many of the best known educators of the country.

The object of the organization is to prevent smoking in all public places and every semi-public place, such as office buildings, etc. The directors include: Prof. C. Wilder, Cornell University; Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, Washington; David Starr Jordan, president Stanford University; Dr. James R. Day, president Syracuse University; D. W. Sever, New Haven; Thomas B. Stowell, Los Angeles, and S. F. Beekham, Brooklyn.

RALEIGH WOMAN VICTIM.

Brs. J. A. Tant Sixth to Die from Pellagra in Six Weeks.

Raleigh, N. C., July 25.—Mrs. J. A. Tant died of pellagra at a local hospital this morning. She is the sixth person having died of this disease in Raleigh within the past six weeks. There were reported to the city physician during the month of July 11 cases that were being treated.

GOVERNMENT WINS OVER WIRE TRUST

Thirty-Seven Members of Combine Withdraw Pleas of Not Guilty.

FINES IMPOSED IN EACH CASE

Action Came in Face of Vigorous Argument Against Pleas by District Attorney Wise — Many More Indicted.

New York, July 25.—The Federal government today scored heavily in its effort to break up the alleged "wire trust" when 37 of the 83 men indicted June 29th, withdrew the plea of "not guilty," and accepted sentence without trial, on pleas of "nole contendere." Judge Archbold, in the United States District Court, imposed fines of from $1,000 to $1,500 and costs in each case.

The action came in the face of vigorous argument against the acceptance of the plea by United States District Attorney Wise. It had never been accepted in this court, he declared, and he protested against a precedent.

"The best authorities," he said, "characterize it as a plea indicating a compromise between the defendants and prosecuting attorneys," and he denied that any such compromise existed.

"The facts in this case are flagrant," he continued. "This set of men representing practically an entire industry, in open and perfectly clear violation of a United States statute combined to restrain and control trade. The case against them is so clear and open that the most eminent counsel in this country have advised them that it would be fruitless to attempt to enter a defense."

The court, however, accepted the pleas and remarked:

"This is what you might call a trade offense. It is an offense which by the acct of Congress is against the interest of the business world. It seems to me I am not going out of the way when I say that just what was meant by this law has remained in considerable uncertainty up to this time. We now know exactly or very nearly what it means, and from this time on there will be no excuse, but I feel justified in looking upon what has occurred in the past in this light and therefore I certainly regard this as calling for nothing except a proper vindication of the law by a fine."

Sentence to pay the costs and a fine of $1,000 in each case was then pronounced with the provision that where a defendant had been fined in once case, the fine should be $100 for each additional case.

It is alleged that the 83 indicted members entered into an unlawful combination and conspiracy to restrain trade, and that continually from June 1, 1908, to some later date, "were knowingly and wilfully engaged in this combination, the purpose of which was to fix arbitrarily and non-competitive prices both for the purchase of the raw product and for the sales of the manufactured goods."

William Palmer, president of the American Steel & Wire Company; Herbert L. Satterlee, son-in-law of J. P. Morgan; Frank J. Gould, and Chas. F. Brooker, Republican National Committeeman from Connecticut, are among the 46 other alleged members of the associations who have pleaded not guilty to the indictments.

HIGH COST OF LIVING

Des Moines People Open Market Place on Public Square.

Des Moines, Iowa, July 25.—How to reduce the high cost of living was solved by 3,000 consumers who today established here a permanent market place.

Following a campaign of several weeks, the city officials turned the city hall lawn over to the vegetable and farm produce venders. Nearly a half hundred hucksters were lined up on the plot. The rush of consumers began at 6 o'clock. Two hours later the hucksters had sold out.

New potatoes were bought for 45 cents a peck, or $1.75 a bushel, where formerly the price had been $3 to $4 per bushel. Apples which had been selling at 25 cents a peck were sold for 10 and 12 cents. Cucumbers found ready buyers at three for ten cents, against the price 10 cents each, which had been prevailing.

For nearly four hours the people, men, women and children, swarmed in from every direction and jammed the street in front of the city hall in an effort to get to the wagons. The services of a squad of police were necessary during the rush, although the crowd was orderly.

EMPTIED GUN INTO CROWD.

Insane Hindu Injured Five Persons in Chicago Yesterday.

Chicago, July 25.—Five persons were injured, but none seriously today when an insane Hindu, standing in the heart of Chicago downtown district, fired the contents of a repeating rifle into the crowded streets.

The police overpowered the crazed man who said his name was M. Husain. In his pockets were found two letters, one addressed to President Taft and the other to the local British consul. In his letters Husain asked permission to carry out his shooting rampage.

NATIONAL 24?ETAN-TAOIN

Pittsburg, July 25.—Ferry pitched a splendid game for Pittsburg who easily defeated Brooklyn 7 to 1. The only tally counted by the visitors was on a home run by Wheat. Of the three hits made off of Ferry, two were by Wheat, who hit for a three bagger in addition to his home run. Only six Brooklyn players reached first base.

WESTERN TENNIS TOURNEY.

Rain Called a Halt Yesterday—The Feature Match.

Lake Forest, Ill., July 25.—Rain, which started to fall shortly after 5 o'clock called a halt to play in the Western Tennis Tournament at the Onwentsia Club this afternoon after most of the matches in the second round of the men's singles and in the first round of the men's doubles had been completed.

The feature match of the day was that between Maurice McLoughlin, of San Francisco, and James H. Winston, of Norfolk, Va., the Californian winning after a hard struggle, 8-6, 6-3.

Richmond, Va., July 25.—Watchman Gee, of the Seaboard Air Line, who was sent up from the police court, several weeks ago charged with the killing of a negro named White, was exonerated in the Hustings court today. The jury was of the opinion that the killing was in self-defense.

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 25.—Al Mandino, of Pittsburg, knocked out Buck Foster, of Baltimore, in the second round here tonight. Foster floored Mandino in the first round, making him take the count. In the second, Mandino's short jab to the stomach and jaw finished Foster.

RALEIGH AFFAIRS.

Habeas Corpus Hearing—Requisition Not Honored—Other Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raiegh, N. C., July 25.—The Johnston county justice of the peace having ordered Alex. A. Jernigan held without bail for the Superior Court for the killing of Albert Todd two weeks ago at a fish pond near Wendell, preparations are afoot by his counsel for application for writ of habeas corpus which will be sought before Chief Justice Walter Clark on the ground that the circumstances of the killing do not warrant a refusal to accept bail in some reasonable amount. Death was from a knife wound across the chest. He died in a hospital here. Col. J. C. L. Harriss is counsel for Jernigan.

In spite of the fact that Governor Kitchin has formally honored the requisition of the Governor of Georgia for Miller S. Sterling, who is wanted in Quitman county, Ga., to answer the charge of forgery, there is to be a strenuous fight against the return of the young man to the "Cracker" State, the resistance to take the form of an application for writ of habeas corpus to be made to Associate Justice W. R. Allen, of the Supreme Court. Sterling is a native of Wayne county and lived one while in Raleigh. In Georgia he went to trucking and contracted debts that he left unpaid, giving rise to the charge of forgery to the amount of about $2,300. Starling's friends are to undertake to prove that he is insane and prevent his extradition in this way.

Two hunderd excursionists spent the day in Raleigh, being the members of the two Baptist Sunday schools of Franklinton. This is an annual affair, Raleigh is entertaining three and four big excursions each week now.

Mr. G. W. Phillips, for three years manager of the Postal telegraph office here, has been promoted to commercial agent of the Postal with headquarters in Richmond. He is to be succeeded here by O. T. Moore who comes from Macon, Ga.

Much interest attaches to the visit of the Southern Railway Good Roads Train that is to come to Raleigh August 2nd for a series of demonstrations and lectures. With the train will be E. L. Boykin and H. S. Fairbanks, two widely known expert road engineers in the employ of the government.

The news of the death of Dr. J. R. Brown, brother of the late Corporation Commission H. C. Brown, caused deep regret here. He died in Indianapolis Saturday after a protracted illness. His health failed some months ago and he came to North Carolina hoping the change would do him good, but he failed steadily. He leaves a wife and two children.

The Raleigh laundries are washing Durham's dirty linen this week owing to the injury by fire that befell the two Durham laundries Sunday night.

Col. A. B. Andrews, vice president of the Southern Railway Co., is receiving congratulations on the attainment of his 70th birthday. This was Sunday. The Colonel's health is excellent, better, he declares, than for five years past.

VERY REV. JOS. BUTLER DEAD

For Twenty-five Years President of Seminary and College.

New York, July 25.—The Very Rev. Joseph Butler, 74 years old, for the past 25 years president of St. Bonaventure's Seminary and College of Allegany, N. Y., died here today, after a lingering illness.

Escaped With His Life.

"Twenty-one years ago I faced an awful death," writes H. B. Martin, Port Harrelson, S. C. "Doctors said I had consumption and the dreadful cough. I had looked like it, sure enough. I tried everything, I could hear of, for my cough, and was under the treatment of the best doctor in Georgetown, S. C., for a year, but could get no relief. A friend advised me to try Dr. King's New Discovery. I did so, and was completely cured. I feel that I owe my life to this great throat and lung cure." THE SENATORIAL RACE.

Daniel-Kitchin Imbroglio—All Headquarters Are Busy.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 25.—North Carolina's senatorial fight that is already well on, involving the seat of United States Senator F. M. Simmons, whose successor is to be chosen in 1912, has waxed decidedly more acute since the controversy arose between Editor Josephus Daniels, who is Democratic National committeeman, and Governor Kitchin, involving the record of the Governor in "Trust Busting." The charge by Editor Daniels that "words, words, words have been the only missiles the Governor has thrown at the robber trusts," and the reply by Governor Kitchin that his campaign denunciations of trusts, his inaugural utterances and his messages to the legislatures, urging more stringent anti-trust law are all in harmony, and that he did all a Governor could do under the Constitution to get through the legislatures thoroughly effective statutes have caused a distinct lining up throughout the State that is causing new estimates of the situation. It has had the effect of bringing Governor Kitchin's candidacy into the limelight and many are asserting that just as this time he has 30 or 40 per cent. more following than any other candidate in the field. However, others take the view that the apparent decided ascendancy of the Kitchin following is due to the special prominence of this Daniels-Kitchin contest, and that in reality the other three candidates—Senator Simmons, ex-Governor Aycock and Chief Justice Clark—are holding their normal strength and one and another of them making gains. Chief Justice Clark is keeping up a steady lick in campaigning through sending to Democrats in every section of the State his notable platform and his noted speeches, "The Gospel of Progress" and "Some Defects in the Constitution of the United States." Also copies of significant opinions that he has delivered in the Supreme Court. These are having their effect and his friends declare that he is making good headway.

Senator Simmons and his private secretary, Mr. Watts, who is recognized as a resourceful political lieutenant, for the Senator, are both back in the State, now, and are to get into the conflict at this end of the line, after pushing their campaign work for some time past from the Washington end.

Ex-Governor Aycock is still leaving his campaigning largely with his friends. The Goldsboro bureau is issuing folders and other matter tending to show that wide-spread welcome that was accorded him as a candidate.

The insinuations that have been spread around that his health or any other condition makes it undesirable for him to undertake the duties of the Senatorship are being refuted. His health is very greatly improved.

NEW TELEPHONE DIRECTORY

Has Just Been Issued by the Southern Bell Telephone Co.

The new directory of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., has been delivered to the Wilmington subscribers by District Commercial Manager S. D. Lucas. The number of new names appearing in the list would indicate that there are constant additions to the number of subscribers in Wilmington and vicinity, and the telephone development is continuing. A number of the new names are farmers' line subscribers furnished under the farmers' line contract of the Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co., which enables farmers at some distance from the city to secure telephone service at a low rate.

There are a number of changes in the arrangement of the directory. In the front of the directory the toll rates from Wilmington and Southport to a number of other points are listed. The subscribers names have also been listed in two columns to the page, which increases the width somewhat and reduces the number, so that all subscribers can be found easier than in a large book. Two other changes are the adding of the suffix "J and L" to duplex subscribers, and listing the telephone number after the name instead of before as in previous directories. If any subscriber has not received directory, one will be mailed upon calling up Manager's office.

NEBRASKA DEMOCRATS.

Convention Failed to Express Itself on Presidential Matter.

Fremont, Neb., July 25.—The Nebraska Democratic Convention which had been expected to go on record so far as their preference for a Presidential candidate a year hence, failed to express itself, on candidates or offer commendations for its leaders today. For the most part, it was a peaceful gathering.

Governor Harmon's personal representative, Ben. W. Chamberlain, was present at the convention, but he soon made it plain to the delegates that his principal business was to get acquainted, and to look over the Western field. No attempt was made to present the name of the Ohio governor for enforcement, and Mr. Chamberlain stated that he was on the ground in the interests of harmony with "the party as well as to note the feeling as to the candidacy of Governor Harmon." The gathering was called under the State-wide primary law for the purpose of adopting a platform as the candidates for State offices, three Supreme judges, two university regents and one railroad commissioner are to be selected by direct vote of Democratic electors.

Lincoln, Neb., July 25.—Nebraska Republicans in convention here today gave President Taft and his administration a strong endorsement and effectively blocked all efforts of a small band of insurgent delegates to arouse sentiment for Senator Robert M. LaFollette, of Wisconsin, as a Presidential candidate.

The insurgents lacked a leader and were out generaled by Victor Rosewater, and his delegation from Omaha. Before the insurgents could get a chance to introduce resolutions from the floor, the regulars had rushed through a motion providing that all resolutions should be referred to a committee which was given power to draw up a final report.

Jan A. F. Jeffries, of Omaha, then named a committee of seven members of which five were strong friends of Mr. Taft and of which Mr. Rosewater was made chairman. From this point the possibilities of the fight on the floor over the endorsement of Mr. Taft went glimmering.

Despite their early announcement that they would assent to a Taft endorsement on any conditions, the insurgents failed to make even a show of fight or objection when the platform resolution was finally presented.

The resolution went through with a whoop by a rising vote during which several of the insurgents were discovered on their feet.

The platform, among other things, heartily endorsed President Taft's administration.

Look Up Numbers Before Calling

Our efforts to improve the telephone service will be greatly augmented if every subscriber will consult the telephone directory before making a call.

It is frequently necessary to assign new numbers to subscribers who change their location, and errors and delays may be averted if you always consult the directory before making a call.

A letter suffix "J" or "L" has been added to every duplex telephone number. This letter is a part of the number and should be repeated to the operator.

How the Benthall Peanut Picker Pays for Itself in a Season

If you grow peanuts you can't afford not to own a Benthall Peanut Picker. The machine will pay for itself the first season.

Yes, siree! with one, you and your boys can do the work of a hundred hands and do it better. You avoid losses from stealing. You get your crop off to market early—get highest prices. It makes peanut growing doubly profitable. That's what it does.

Our recleaning and bagging attachment makes it unnecessary to run peanuts over for seed a second time—makes them absolutely clean—free from tops, roots and pieces of vine.

The Benthall is a picker and not a "thresher." It picks both Spanish and Virginia peanuts as perfectly as human as fingers. It keeps the vines for hay!

Other machines that thresh them crack the nuts so that they will not keep—grind the vines to smithereens, so that they are unfit for feed. The Benthall is the picker of proven worth—tried out in the peanut fields of old Virginia.

The Benthall is almost wearproof and is sold under guarantee.

Write now for our FREE booklet "How the Benthall Pays for Itself."

MR. GODWIN REPEATS DENIAL

Upon Return to Washington, Says He Can Only Reiterate Statement In Regard to Candidacy Next Year.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Washington, D. C., July 25.—Congressman Godwin returned to Washington this morning in splendid health after recuperating from the effects of a recent operation on his throat, which has given him trouble for the past two years.

When asked by your correspondent in regard to the second statement of State Senator Bellamy which appeared in The Star of July 20th, in which Mr. Bellamy said that Mr. Godwin promised last February two years ago that he would not run but would be for him (Mr. Bellamy), in 1913. Mr. Godwin said: "I have already denied this statement in The Star of July 17th. An interview was published from me in which I denied it in positive terms. I must emphatically reiterate the denial. Mr. Bellamy is simply mistaken. There is no foundation whatever for his statement. I cannot take my time or tax the patience of the public in repeating denials of the same charge. I do not intend to be drawn into a newspaper controversy with any one and so far as I am concerned I intend to have nothing further to say about the matter unless there is a demand for a discussion of it on the stump next year before the primary." IN THE MOUNTAINS.

Traveling Correspondent Writes Something of Mountain Scenery.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Waynesville, N. C., July 25.—Starting from the sandy plains on the Atlantic coast a few days ago, I have gone almost the entire length of our great and rapidly developing State, and am now writing these lines from beyond the great mountain range, The Blue Ridge, on an elevation nearly 3,000 feet above Wilmington, where I look from my east window at 8 o'clock this morning and welcome the warm rays of the King of Day as they clear the top of a mountain peak which seems to one accustomed to a flat country to penetrate the sky.

Few countries can boast of greater variety of climate, soil, crops, elevations, people, etc., than North Carolina. A young man surprised me by assuring me that the top of the mountain peak of which I have spoken had snow on it one of the hottest days we had in Wilmington last week, and after I had expressed heartily my astonishment, said: "A young woman from Atlanta by the name of Snow went to the top of it," and while that is the only snow that has been on the mountain since the early Spring the nights here are very pleasant and I am sleeping comfortably under two and three covers every night.

The crop prospects of the State will be of interest to our readers, and this I tried to observe very closely as I traveled, both by observing from the train and by inquiring of passengers who boarded the train at different points. Beginning at Wilmington the rains have been better and better and consequently, the outlook for growing crops is more and more encouraging till one reaches the heart of the great county of Robeson, where rains have been abundant for the past six weeks and corn and cotton never promised better returns to the tiller of the soil than this year. Farmers around Lumberton told me that they had never had better prospects in their lives. From this point on towards Charlotte the prospects grow less encouraging, though crops are fairly good through the Hamlet, Wadesboro and Monroe sections, and some recent rains have fallen as far as Charlotte, but from Charlotte to Statesville, one of the best sections of the State, is still in the grip of a drought that is almost parching the growing crops and it looks from the train as if these crops would be a complete failure.

These conditions prevail until we reach the foothills of the Blue Ridge, where rains seem to have been more abundant, and corn looks promising. Leaving Asheville for the southwest, towards Waynesville and Murphy, there has been plenty of rain and a good crop of small grain has already been harvested and a fine crop of hay and corn is growing, and he who thinks there is no farming lands in the counties of North Carolina that lie beyond the Blue Ridge, is much mistaken. Macon county has a good percentage of as fine corn land as can be found in North Carolina and had enjoyed this year an ideal corn season and is now having plenty of rain. Many farmers in this section are getting their farms in fine condition and will realize from 25 to 50 bushels of corn per acre this year without using a pound of commercial fertilizer.

These mountain counties are also the home of the finest apples that are grown in the State, and while the crop of apples this year is not considered good, it is by no means a failure, as is largely true this side of the mountains.

MR. ANGUS SHAW.

Highly Respected Robeson Citizen Passed Away Monday.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Maxton, N. C., July 25.—Mr. Angus Shaw died at his home near this town at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon after a long period of bad health, though his immediate death was quite a surprise as he was confined to his room only since Sunday afternoon. He was 72 years old, and was one of the ones who left the University of North Carolina to enter the war and was to have received his degree from that institution in June, had not his bad health prevented him from attending the commencement.

He is survived by his wife, two daughters, Misses Sadie and Carrie Lee, and two sons, Mr. James Shaw, of this place, and Mr. D. H. Shaw, of Laurinburg. He was one of the most highly respected citizens of the county and one of the leading spirits for good in the community in which he lived. The funeral was conducted from his late home at 11 o'clock this morning by Rev. DeVane, Episcopal rector, of Hope Mills. The interment was in the new cemetery.

WHITEVILLE DOINGS

Columbus Court Resumed—Personal News Notes of Interest.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., July 25.—Yesterday when court convened, the first case taken up was that against Robert Granger and Missie Marlowe, charged with the killing of Bub Nobles at Grists. It was decided to try the two together and not separate them. Messrs. I. B. Tucker, Lewis, Lyon & Greer, and Schulken, Toon & Schulken are local members of the bar employed in this case.

Over 200 veniremen had been summoned from which to select a jury, and it was 2:30 P. M. before the jury was made up. Judge Whedbee refused to adjourn court for dinner until the jury was selected. After that the examination of witnesses is progressing rapidly, and it is believed that by tomorrow a verdict will be rendered. There are a great many in town in attendance on this case, but it is not creating much interest, as the killing was the outcome of a drunken debauch.

Mr. Johnnie Rapley, who is working for the Evergreen Lumber Co., accidentally fell of a car and was badly hurt.

There was a large number of farmers from every section in town today.

Mrs. Mollie Lumsden and family have returned from an extended visit to Jacksonville, Fla., and will spend the rest of the Summer in Whiteville.——Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hyman, of Conway, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McRackan. Mr. Hyman is one of the largest merchants in eastern Carolina. He moved from Scotland Neck to Conway 25 years ago.——Miss Mamie Smith has returned home after spending several days with her brother, Felix, in Wilmington. She also visited Miss Margaret Rowell while away.——Miss Susan Cedie, who has been teaching music in James Sprunt Institute for the past year, spent last week with Miss Gladys Thompson.——Mrs. J. I. C., and Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Tisdale, from Bishopville, S. C., are the guests of Mrs. John Carnes.——Mrs. Will Richardson, of Jacksonville, Fla., is visiting friends and relatives here.——Lee, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Formyduval, who is so dangerously low with typhoid fever and pneumonia, is still at death's door and but little change is seen in his condition. He is unconscious and friends of the family are very apprehensive.——Mrs. J. L. Memory and daughters, who have been on a visit to Scotland county, on a camping out trip, are expected home this week. They are having a most delightful time on the banks of Lumber river, near Wagram.

FOREPAW OF SHE-BEAR.

Killed Near Lillington Creek by Historic "Lillington Hall."

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., July 25.—I am sending under separate cover the left fore paw of a she-bear that was captured on Rural Route No. 1, Greater Rocky Point, near Lillington Creek, by historic old "Lillington Hall." It will serve as a fine mascot. When one cares to travel in his auto, simply attach it and the machine will never "turn turtle," take a ditch nor climb a telephone pole. And when Col. Clawson would write a fiery editorial, simply suspend it in his sanctum and with talismanic effect it will boost his courage and deter other editors from jumping on him.

This Bruin has been the cause of the shortage of N. C. hams in Pender (they are scarce now at 20c) for she was a hog-bear and was especially fond of the hind legs of pigs, shoats, etc. She had become such a source of terror in that community that Commodore Clark, A. C. L., a year since, assembled the entire Northeast river squadron to put her out of commission by capture. But alas, "the best laid schemes of men and mice aft gang aglee." The commodore and his fleet thought they had her spotted and opened up the entire broadside, when lo! and behold! he had killed the razor back sow of old man Sam Moore. An inglorious victory. Of course, they buried the old sow at "midnight and not a drum was beat, not a funeral note was heard," but grave complications came near arising from the issue, which was duly compromised. The other paw will be duly presented to the commodore as a pendant for his watch fob and a reminder that all's well that ends well."

Her bruinship was caught in a steel trap set by Mr. Ben Currie and weighed 200 pounds as an evidence of her being left handed. She was caught by the left paw, an extremely rare occurrence. E. D. P.

TO BE WORLD'S LARGEST SHIP.

Length of the Aquitania Will Exceed 900 Feet.

London, July 24.—The plans for the new steamer Aquitania, which the Cunard company is building at Clyde Bank, have been modified to make the vessel the largest in the world.

Her length will exceed 900 feet and be 10 feet greater than the length of the 50,000-ton liner Imperator, which the Hamburg-American Line will put into service in the Spring of 1913. It is also stated that the Aquitania will be one knot faster than her German rival. The original specifications called for a length of 885 feet and a speed of 23 knots an hour. She will accommodate 4,000 passengers.

Kill More Than Wild Beasts.

The number of people killed yearly by wild beasts don't approach the vast number killed by disease germs. No life is safe from their attacks. They're in air, water, dust, even food. But grand protection is afforded by Electric Bitters, which destroy and expel these deadly disease germs from the system. That's why chills, fever and ague, all malarial and many blood diseases yield promptly to this wonderful blood purifier. Try them, and enjoy the glorious health and new strength they'll give you. Money back, if not satisfied. Only 50c. at R. R. Bellamy's.

WAYNE COUNTY CROPS

Glowing Prospects Reported—6,000 Fire at Claypso — Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mount Olive, N. C., July 25.—Unless some general misfortune befalls this section of the country between now and harvest time, or the prices of farm products becomes very much depressed, this is one year in which it would seem that the doctor, the lawyer, the preacher, the merchant, the tax collector, and all should be able to give a "receipt in full" to all their debtors, for "I have the best crops this year I have had in many years" or "I have the best crops I have ever had," is the report that comes from all sections of the surrounding country. When the drought had become quite prolonged and it began to look as though serious damage was going to be done the growing crops, the good people in various sections of the country, as well as here in our own town, met repeatedly and prayed for rain. Well, it would seem that our prayers have been wonderfully answered, and unless our people are very ungrateful, not only financial obligations ought to be met this year, but charitable and religious obligations as well.

Friday night of last week the Patton Manufacturing Company, of Calypso, N. C., a small town a few miles south of here, sustained a $6,000.00 loss by fire, the barrel, box and crate manufacturing departments all having been destroyed. There was no insurance to cover this loss so we are informed.

A gracious revival, this. Your correspondent was informed Saturday of last week of a protracted meeting that had a few days before closed at Smith's Chapel, a country Methodist church about six miles west of here, in which the church membership was increased by 59 members.

Several carloads of watermelons are usually shipped to northern markets from here every season, but we have not heard of any being shipped from here so far; but the local market was pretty well stocked Saturday. A pretty fair crop of cantaloupes is being shipped from this ecstion this year at very good prices.

Mr. G. E. Alphin, a Duplin county man, who has already conceived many useful inventions, was in town Saturday exhibiting his latest invention, quite a conveniently arranged guano distributor.

SNOW FLURRY IN MICHIGAN

Only Such Recorded in July in Neighborhood of Bay City.

Bay City, Mich., July 25.—For five minutes last night a snow flurry occurred here, the only snow ever recorded during July in this part of the State.

Findlay, Ohio, July 25.—Snow flakes fell here last night. They probably were forced down by the heavy atmosphere.

A MOTHER'S DUTY

It is the duty of every expectant mother to prepare her system for the coming of her little one; to avoid as far as possible the suffering of such occasions, and endeavor to pass through the crisis with her health and strength unimpaired. This she may do through the use of Mother's Friend, a remedy that has been so long in use, and accomplished so much good, that it is in no sense an experiment, but a preparation which always produces the best results. It is for exernal application and so penetrating in its nature as to thoroughly lubricate every muscle, nerve and tendon involved during the period before baby comes. It aids nature by expanding the skin and tissues, relieves tenderness and soreness, and perfectly prepares the system for natural and safe motherhood. Mother's Friend has been used and endorsed by thousands of mothers, and its use will prove a comfort and a benefit to any woman in need of such a remedy. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers, which contains much valuable information.

CURE FOR SUMMER COMPLAINT

At no time of the year are the bowels put to a severer test than during the hot weather. Thousands become afflicted with "summer complaint," or running off of the bowels. The cause very often lies in the drinking of impure water, the eating of unripe fruit or tainted food. But whatever the cause it is useless to try to cure the trouble with an astringent remedy, an opiate, or salts and such things. The bowels need not only a thorough cleaning out, but the stomach needs strengthening and toning, so that they may have a new start. All this is best obtained by the use of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin, which is a great stomach, liver and bowel cleanser. It will quickly stop the unnatural passages, which are so weakening and give rise to vertigo. Thousands of families are using it steadily and thereby avoid all digestive troubles summer and winter. Buy a 50 cent or $1.00 bottle today of your druggist and you will be surprised at the quick and lasting effects. You will find it a mild, gentle laxative, agreeable to young and old. Those who have never tried it can obtain a SAMPLE FOR A TEST FREE OF CHARGE by sending their address to

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the
WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY, INC.,
Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under Act of Congress, March 2nd, 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE MORNING STAR, the oldest daily newspaper in North Carolina, is published daily except Monday, at $6 per year, $3 for six months, $1.50 for three months; 50 cents for one month, served by carriers in the city, or by mail.

THE SUNDAY STAR, by mail, one year, $1; six months, 50 cents; three months, 25 cents.

ADVERTISING RATES may be had on application, and advertisers may feel assured that through the columns of this paper they may reach all Wilmington, Eastern Carolina and contiguous territory in South Carolina.

Obituary sketches, cards of thanks, communications espousing the cause of a private enterprise or a political candidate, and like matter, will be charged at the rate of 10 cents per line, or if paid cash in advance, a half rate will be allowed. Announcements of fairs, festivals, balls, hops, picnics, society meetings, political meetings, etc., will be charged under same conditions, except so much thereof as may be of news value to readers of the paper.

Advertisements discontinued before expiration of contracts are charged transient rates for time actually published. Payment for transient advertisements must be cash in advance. Contract advertisers will not be allowed to exceed their space at same rates or advertise anything foreign to their regular business without extra charge. Advertisements to occupy special place will be charged for according to position desired.

TELEPHONES: Business Office, No. 51; Editorial and Local rooms, No. 61. Call either, if the other doesn't answer.

COMMUNICATIONS, unless they contain important news, or discuss briefly and properly subjects of real interest, are not wanted; and if acceptable in every other way, they will invariably be rejected unless the real name of the author accompanies the same, not necessarily for publication, but as a guarantee of good faith.

Wednesday, July 26, 1911.

Self-made men could have done better if they had been given a chance.

No man likes to "eat his own words," because they are terribly hard to swallow.

The New York artist who went into the affinity business now has his third. Evidently he is determined to let no affinity escape.

Governor Kitchin seems to have stirred up opposition because he tried to be Governor without bellowing and pawing up the earth.

A contemporary says "brutal footwear manufacturers say that the feminine foot is growing larger." It's all right, however, if there is as much feminine as there is foot.

If you pursue the even tenor of your way some folks will accuse you of trying to go on a still hunt, and if you go down the pike beating tom-toms they'll prove that you are not safe and sane.

"The happiest women are those who believe everything their husbands tell them," says a lady writer. At the same time a man ought to be ashamed of himself for making it impossible for a woman to believe what he says.

If reciprocity with Canada should happen to turn out all right, it will be great for the Democrats. If it doesn't come up to expectations it will be one more of Taft's Jonah measures, for which he alone will be held responsible.

Commenting upon the early announcement of Senator George H. Bellamy that he is a candidate for Congress, the Lumberton Robesonian says: "They're off, by George! And it's more than a year yet to election time."

Some people gain reputation by having brains but lots of men have to do like Senator Heyburn if they can hope to gain notoriety. At the same time we would loan Senator Heyburn a quarter if he should fail to work his game for all it is worth.

If President Taft retains Dr. Wiley in the government service he will affront Attorney General Wickersham. If he lets Wiley go, he will affront the people. Since there is only one of Wickersham, the best thing the President can do is to give Wick to understand that he must take care of himself.

The Greensboro News makes note: "In chasing his wife 4,000 miles a Georgia man has shown that he was as anxious to keep up with her as she was to get away from him." Yes, but that long chase may be satisfactorily explained when it is stated that she may have carried off the only meal ticket in the family.

If the National Democratic executive committee wants to be Democratic it should decide on Baltimore for the National convention. Baltimore was the first city to raise $100,000 to secure the convention and we are pretty well satisfied that anybody would be glad to accept the nomination if it is made in Baltimore.

Politicians should take heart. A historian is now trying to make out like Captain Kidd was no pirate at heart and was a loyal gentleman who was forced by circumstances to scuttle a ship now and then to make both ends meet. Captain Kidd will be forgiven if he will only come from the spirit land and tell us whether he buried his treasure on Money Island opposite Southport, or whether he hid his wealth of gold on the Hammocks at Wrightsville Beach. Our "only hope" is to dig it up and get in the swim.

DOWNED ON HIS OWN PROPOSITION.

Reciprocity has been called President Taft's "only hope". Some months ago he announced that he was "willing to stand or fall on reciprocity." Did he mean to "stand" for the nomination or "fall" down on it? Or did he mean that it would enable him to stand his only chance of election if he didn't fall down on the nomination?

President Taft has won reciprocity, according to the Senate's vote on Saturday, when the bill was passed by a vote of 53 to 27. The House having previously passed the bill, it is now up to the Canadian Parliament to pass it, following which it becomes effective when President Taft shall have issued a proclamation declaring it in force. Of course, the President won a legislative battle and retired for a few days to his Summer home, feeling much gratified over the outcome.

However, did President Taft get much by the fight? Was it at the head of the Republican forces, or was it behind the Democratic forces? Yea, it was only by means of Democratic soldiers that he won his battle. In the Democratic House the bill was passed with a Republican majority opposing it. In the Republican Senate it was passed by Democratic votes, with the majority of Republican Senators voting against it.

With a majority of Republicans in both Houses against the Republican President's measure, he certainly has ceased to be the leader of the Republican party so far as Congress is concerned. Of course, the Republican masses may repudiate the Congress and endorse the Republican President for the nomination, but, in that event, electing him would be another question. It is plain that in nominating the President the Republicans will be placed in the attitude of repudiating their members of the Senate and House, and if he is not re-nominated it will mean repudiation of their President. That is the problem for the Republican party to settle between now and next June, about which time the National Republican convention will meet.

Hasn't the turn affairs have taken eliminated Taft as the logical candidate of the party, taken either way? He has the Republican Congress against him and it is by no means sure he has the Republican masses with him. Wouldn't the united Democratic party have a better showing on the issue than would the President with a divided Republican party back of him?

In fact, if the Republican masses vote for Taft on that issue wouldn't they have to vote for Democratic Congressmen to make sure that he would have a sympathetic Congress? What could be gained by electing a Reciprocity President and an anti-reciprocity Congress?

To make the matter short, doesn't the situation eliminate Taft as the available man for the Republican nomination for President? Certainly it is up to the Republicans to repudiate either the President or their Congress. It surely is a bad case of repudiation. If Taft and a Republican Congress were elected, it would be a repudiation of the Democrats, who are the only militant backers of reciprocity. If President Taft runs on his "only hope" he certainly ought to make a canvass for the Democratic Congressional ticket to make sure that he will really win for reciprocity.

CRANBERRIES GROWING WILD

The Star has often called attention to the adaptibilities of North Carolina for producing about all the products known to agriculture and horticulture, and it is no guess work on our part but a knowledge of the geographic position, the sectional divisions, the meteorological conditions and the soil variety in the State from the sea to the mountains. When a study of North Carolina is made, one is bound to admit that it is one of the most marvelous countries in the world, capable of producing more different kinds of crops than any known country on the globe.

For an all-round country there is eastern North Carolina which heads the list. We have often wondered why people didn't add cranberries to their money crops since all the conditions are wonderfully adapted to growing that valuable fruit. We have urged it on different occasions, for our swamps, savannahs and bogs favor cranberry culture in every possible particular. When cranberries are found growing wild in this section, it does not take much of an argument to convince any one of what we say.

Several years ago we mentioned that cranberries had been found in the wild state near Cypress Lake, Pender county, so it was no surprise for us when Mr. C. F. Howard, of that part of the Nation's Garden Spot, brought to The Star on Monday a large bunch of cranberries which are nearing the ripening stage. Mr. Howard found them growing around Cypress Lake on his place and states that there are not a few of them but an area of one hundred acres with the berries thick as hops, practically all over the place. The country where he lives is on Topsail Sound and Mr. Howard last Fall gathered and sold wild cranberries from his place. He doesn't know whether they are indigenous to the soil or not, but is inclined to believe that wild ducks, in their migrations from the cranberry marshes of the North bring the seed to the coastal lakes and marshes of North Carolina.

During the Winter thousands of ducks frequent Cypress Lake and Topsail Sound, and it is quite possible that Mr. Howard's theory may be correct. However, we would not be surprised if cranberries are not native in this region, which, the botanists declare, contains more varieties of plant life than any other portion of America.

The main point is that cranberries will grow in our wet lands where the big blue huckleberry grows. The specimen which Mr. Howard brought to The Star is fine and he says he gathered them from bushes about a foot high. Unfortunately about 75 acres of the berry area were burned over last year on account of fire, which, it is said, was dropped from a passing locomotive.

What some of our enterprising truckers in eastern North Carolina ought to do is to utilize their otherwise useless wet lands for the cultivation of cranberries.

KITCHIN PROVES AN ALIBI.

We have read with great interest the reply of Governor Kitchin to his critics who have sprung certain charges to head off his aspirations for a seat in the United States Senate. The Governor in a clear and exceedingly dispassionate way proves an alibi so far as the charge is made that he did nothing to secure effective anti-trust legislation at the hands of the General Assembly. By quoting from his messages and speeches he shows clearly where he stood, and that he failed to throttle the General Assembly and compel it to bend to his wishes is no fault of his. His reply leaves the responsibility on the State Senate which consistently fought shy of "an anti-trust bill with teeth."

As to the charge that he failed to scalp trusts with the present law, that might eb explained by the position taken by his critics that the law is a "pink tea" affair.

If it really is an article of that nature the Governor could not be expected to make it do what the famous Sherman National act has not done and never will do. If it is true that the State act is weak and ineffective no one could hardly expect the Governor to "make bricks without straw." If the law is ineffective the blame again reverts to the General Assembly.

So far as we are concerned, we never expected either Teddy or the Governor to bust trusts in the same proportion that they talked and so we are not disposed to hold the Governor responsible for what Teddy the Terrible and Taft the Tactful, have failed to do effectively with all the Nation at their backs.

Finally, for party expediency, we don't see the good of burdening either the Governor or the General Assembly with responsibility for the failure of trust busting. It places upon the Democratic party in the State the onus of defending either its Governor or its Legislature from an attack within.

When the attack begins from without, the real defenders of the Democratic party will have to do the best they can to explain away the actions of the patriots who rock the boat for whatever there is in it.

In spite of the fact that a great deal of noise will be made about the qualifications of the candidates for the Senate, we see nothing in the careers of either Kitchin, Aycock, Clark or Simmons that will prevent true Democrats from recognizing them on their merits as in every way worthy of the confidence of the people of North Carolina. That will be pretty apt to be the case when the smoke of battle clears away and the people analyze the motives behind any attacks that may be made on either of the four candidates.

The Raleigh Times once told a somewhat incredible story about a cat, and that story keeps "coming back" to mock at the veracity of the Times. Other editors have engaged in all sorts of hopeless efforts to match the fantastic talent on our esteemed Raleigh contemporary.

It is admitted that the corn crops all over Robeson county are the best in years, perhaps the best ever known. The memory of the oldest inhabitant runs not back to a time when there was such a dry Spring and early Summer. What's the answer? Isn't this a pretty good illustration of what would happen as a regular thing if the country were thoroughly drained?—Lumberton Robesonian.

Wilmington, N. C., is stirred to its very center. The city council has passed an ordinance forbidding the keeping of cows within fifty feet of a residence and prohibiting hogs within the city limits. They are circulating a recall petition and 700 irate citizens have signed it. Wilmington may offer excellent pasturage for cows and hogs, but all the same the council acted wisely.—Richmond Virginian.

Mr. H. F. Cary, general passenger agent for the Southern Railway, declares that his company has hauled into the mountains of western North Carolina already this season forty per cent. more passengers than it has for any entire season during the past five years. This is of striking significance, showing as it does that the mountains of this State are coming to be known and appricated for their true value.—Charlotte Chronicle.

A citizen of Greensboro started to Wrightsville the other day with his family. A friend asked him where he was going to stop. Without hesitation he named the hotel. His friend asked if that was the best hotel and he replied: "I don't know; there may be others there just as good, but that hotel is patriotic enough to advertise in the Daily News, our home morning newspaper, and just for that I am patriotic enough to give it my patronage." The moral is plain.—Greensboro News.

The Wilmington Star observes that though Dr. H. W. Wiley, the government food expert, is a Republican and technically violated a law, the Democratic press of the country insists on his retention in office because they believe in his integrity and know that he has been of great service and usefulness to the people. A few mistakes, or what some might think are mistakes, don't count when the full record of an official's patriotic service makes his short-comings look like mere specks on apples of gold. A man must be judged by the maximum of his splendid achievements as compared with a minimum of slips and baubles.—Greenville (S. C.) News.

In this morning's paper we present a communication from Gilbert T. Stephenson, Esq., of Winston-Salem, advocating the preferential primary for next year's senatorial contest. We approve it cordially and trust that the proposed plan will meet with the favor which would clearly seem to be deserved. There will doubtless be a primary, even if largely or mainly for the reason that no candidate and no candidate's supporters would feel safe in inviting the charge of conscious weakness by any other course; but why should there be more primaries than one when a rational and well-tested alternative is ready to hand? Surely one primary will cause enough strife and bitterness, will contain enough possibilities of injury to the Democratic party, will wear out the candidates and drain their pocket books sufficiently far, without two candidates unnecessarily entering the contest for a second time. — Charlotte Observer.

Petitions have been circulated in Wilmington asking for an election for the recall of the mayor and councilmen. The charges brought against the councilmen are the most flimsy. One is that they have passed an ordinance not allowing cows to be kept in 50 feet of a dwelling and then on a cement floor. Another is not allowing hogs to be kept in the city. Another is, not allowing merchants to use any part of the sidewalk to display goods. These are laws that all cities should have. Indeed it is surprising that Wilmington has not had the two former long before this, yet the passage of such laws as these are to be made the basis for the use of the recall. Wilmington should go slow. The eyes of the State are upon her and the State wishes her well and has a mighty good opinion of her. But to hold that opinion she must go forward as she will surely be going back if she recalls her commissioners because they have been performing their duty.—Raleigh Times.

In 1900 individual deposits in National banks in the South aggregated $265,000,000, or something more than 10 per cent. of the individual deposits in the national banks of the country. On June 7, 1977, the deposits in National banks in the South were $726,287,726, or nearly three times as much as in 1900, a wonderful illusetration of the South's increasing wealth. The extension of the national banking system in the South, because of the popularity of the State banking system in that section, was for a time of slower growth than in the rest of the country, but it has become more rapid since the passage of the act of 1900, facilitating the organization of national banks. Between 1909 and 1911 the deposits of national banks in the South increased from $598,853,875 to $726,-285,726, or by $127,332,651, equal to 21.3 per cent., and in the national banks in the rest of the country from $4,299,723,621 to $4,751,705,430, or by $451,981,809, equal to 10.5 per cent., and the deposits in the national banks in the South consituted 13.2 per cent of the total deposits of the kind in the whole country. In this connection it is interesting to note that of the total $634,095,698 of savings deposits in national banks, 100,483,935 are in Southern banks this year.—Manufacturers' Record.

DR. LINGLE ACCEPTS.

Goes to Chair of Hebrew in Union Theological Seminary.

Richmond, Va., July 25.—The Rev. Dr. Walter L. POSTAL EMPLOYES PROMOTED.

Increases in Salary Total Yearly Aggregate of $2,000,000.

Washington, July 24.—Postmaster General Hitchcock has ordered promotions for postoffice clerks and city letter carriers carrying increases in salaries approximating $2,000,000 a year. Orders were also issued for promotions in the railway mail service which will total $175,000 a year. These increases are in addition to the increases for rural mail carriers, totaling $4,000,000 a year, which became effective July 1st.

The four great groups of postal employes have received increases in pay aggregating $6,000,000 during the current fiscal year. Postmaster General Hitchcock says the increases will be more than offset by increased efficiency of the employes, and he believes the advances are warranted by the fact that the postoffice is now practically on a self-sustaining basis.

Onslow Citizen Pays Visit.

Mr. J. E. Sandlin, a rural free delivery mail carrier and farmer, of Verona, Onslow county, arrived yesterday for a brief business trip. Mr. Sandlin has a splendid peach or chard for his own use and grows some of the largest peaches cultivated in this section. He brought a few down with him yesterday and they are splendid specimens. He said that the peach crop is short this year.

MR. OTTO BANCK PASSES AWAY

Well Known and Esteemed Wilmington Citizen Died Last Night—Funeral This Afternoon From Residence.

Many friends in Wilmington and throughout this and other States where he was well and most favorably known, will hear with sorrow of the death of Mr. Carl Otto Banck, which occurred last night at 8:55 o'clock at his residence in this city, No. 412 Princess street, after an illness of two months with pneumonia and complications. While his death was not unexpected, it came nevertheless as a great shock to the devoted family and thousands of friends. All members of the family were with him when the end came.

Mr. Banck was born in Bielefeld, Germany, October 19th, 1849, and was, therefore 61 years, nine months and five days of age. He came to this country at the age of 18 and first located in New York, where he was engaged with a large cigar importing firm, later traveling out of New York and locating in after years at Augusta, Ga., removing thence to Charleston, S. C., Greensboro and Wilmington, locating in this city in 1893. For 27 consecutive years he was in charge of large depots and distributing branches of the Robert Portner Brewing Co., of Augusta. In all his dealings with his fellow-man he was honest to a fault and was a man of the strictest integrity. He was generous and charitable in his disposition and made many warm and lasting friends in every walk of life. He was especially devoted to his friends and hundreds in every walk of life will hear of his passing with sincere sorrow.

On November 30th, 1880, he married Miss Emily Pfaff, of New York, and they lived happily together for more than 30 years. He is survived by his wife, three sisters, Mrs. Carl Banck, Misses Emma and Anna Banck; two brothers, Messrs. William and August Banck, all of Bielefield, Germany; five daughters, Mrs. B. E. Edwards and Misses Riston, Norman Hazel and Dorothy Banck, and three sons, Messrs. E. F. O. Banck, teller of the American National Bank, of Wilmington, and Messrs. William and Clifton Banck, all of this city, Mr. William Banck being engaged with the civil engineering department of the United States government in raising the wreck of the battleship Maine. There is also surviving one little grandson, Otto Banck Edwards, to whom the grandfather was especially devoted. All the bereaved ones have the tenderest sympathy of hosts of friends in their great bereavement.

Mr. Banck was a member of Germania Lodge, Knights of Pythias, the Howard Relief Company, the German-American Alliance, recently organized here, and of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church. The funeral will be conducted from the residence, No. 412 Princess street, this afternoon at 5 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. Harold E. Beattie, pastor of St. Matthew's English Lutheran church, in the absence of Rev. W. A. Snyder, D. D., pastor of St. Paul's who is absent from the city. The interment will be in Oakdale cemetery.

DROWNED FROM COMSTOCK

Young Swede Employed on U. S Dredge Lost His Life Yesterday

Alfred Johnson, a Swede, 22 years old, employed as a watchman on the government dredge Comstock, at work in the river two miles above Southport, was drowned from the vessel yesterday morning between 4 and 5 o'clock. His body had not been recovered up to last night, though persistent effort has been made by members of the crew of the dredge. Assistant Engineer R. C. Merritt, in charge of the work on the lower Cape Fear, was advised yesterday of the drowning and is endeavoring to learn something of the man's friends or relatives, if he has any in this country. When drowned he was at work clearing the drag of some obstruction and either neglected to apply the brake while standing on the drag or the brake slipped with him, carrying him below with the pipe. Members of the crew immediately lowered a boat and had all but reached him when he went down for the last time, evidently being unable to swim.

The Recorder's Court.

In the Recorder's court yesterday morning Bertram LeVann, colored, received sentence of 30 days on the county farm for an affray. Henry Ford and Alex. Walker, both colored, faced a charge of larceny. It was proved that they stole a suit of clothes from Mr. R. M. Russ at the A. C. L. yards at Smith's creek. When the suit was stolen one of the pockets contained $5 in cash. Ford had the pants on when arrested. They were given sentences of 12 months each on the county roads and appealed to the Superior Court. The case against John Hill, colored, charged with assaulting a female, was continued pending further investigation of the McGee murder, which resulted from Hill beating his wife.

Monster Rattlesnake Killed.

Monday night about 10 o'clock, Mr. F. J. Dempsey, who lives at Wrightsboro, and members of his family heard a rattlesnake singing or buzzing in the yard. A lantern was procured and an investigation made. Outside the house they found a huge snake coiled up within two feet of the house cat. The cat seemed absolutely helpless and had evidently been charmed by the snake. It appeared as though the snake was preparing to swallow the cat. Mr. June Dempsey took his shotgun, loaded with buckshot, and killed the snake. The monster had 17 rattles and a button, was five feet and four inches in length and measured over six inches in circumference. Mr. Dempsey stated that it was not a good night for snakes either.

Funeral of Mrs. Hall.

The funeral of Mrs. R. M. Hall who died Sunday morning, was held from the residence, No. 614 Castle street, Monday at 11 o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of Fifth Street M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. E. C. Sell, pastor of Trinity Methodist church. Interment was made in Bellevue cemetery.

SHARPLESS STILL MISSING

Negro Who Killed Jerry McGee Cannot be Found—Coroner's Investigation Was Held Yesterday—The Testimony.

There were practically no new developments in the McGee murder case yesterday, the facts as stated in yesterday's issue of the Star being borne out by the evidence brought out at the coroner's investigation. Sharpless, the negro who fired the fatal shot, is still at large, and it is thought that some one must have persuaded him to flee, for he was seen after he had left his home, and told a friend that he was going to the police station to give himself up.

The verdict of the coroner's jury was that Jerry McGee came to his death from a pistol shot in the house of Paul Sharpless. Mary Sharpless, wife of Paul Sharpless, and mother of Hester Hill, the wife of John Hill, testified that she and her husband were seated on the porch of their home at Ninth and Campbell streets when Hill came in and his wife prepared supper for him. While Hill was eating his wife sat down at the organ and began playing. Hill began fussing with her and when she commenced to weep Sharpless declared that he was going to move to another house so that he would not hear their continual quarreling. Jerry McGee, the negro preacher, came in and endeavored to pacify all parties. He asked them not to quarrel. Sharpless stated that he was not going to quarrel with Hill, but that the latter must not curse his wife. Hill declared heatedly that he would curse her. He told Sharpless that if he would come outside he would give him a thrashing. Sharpless then fired the first shot. Hill ran between McGee and Sharpless, the bullets taking effect in McGee's right breast. The Sharpless woman stated that she heard only one shot fired, but that a bulet hit her in the finger, inflicting, however, a very slight wound. She said that Sharpless held the only pistol that she saw.

The testimony of the other witnesses, including Hester Hill, wife of John Hill, and daughter of Sharpless, was almost identical with that of the Sharpless woman, with the exception of the fact that the others stated that there were three or more shots fired. However, they all differed on this point, some stating that there were only three and others claiming to have heard as high as five.

Hill is in jail pending further investigation of the case.

The police continued their efforts yesterday and last night to locate and apprehend Sharpless. They are of the opinion that the negro left immediately after the murder, going either to Montague or Castle Haynes. Yesterday morning Officers Frank George and T. M. Hall went to Montague and last night Officers C. G. Jones and J. H. Davis were sent to Castle Haynes. The officers will search the respective communities thoroughly and may not return for a day or two.

Councilman B. C. Moore, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, will send to South Carolina today for two bloodhounds, which the city has decided to purchase. The dogs may be put on the negro's trail. Had bloodhounds been available Tuesday night the negro, most likely, would have been apprehended.

FUNERAL OF MR. TAYLOR

Conducted at 4 O'clock Yesterday Afternoon from Late Residence.

In the presence of a large assemblage of friends and relatives, impressive funeral services were conducted at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon over the remains of the late Mr. Owen T. Taylor, whose death occurred Saturday night. The services were conducted by Rev. G. T. Adams, pastor of Fifth Street M. E. church, assisted by Rev. E. C. Sell, pastor of Trinity M. E. church, and the floral offerings were many and very pretty.

The pall-bearers were: Col. Walker Taylor, Messrs. B. D. Hamilton, H. O. Thomas, J. O. Carr, Wm. M. Robbins, and Francis Garrison.

Mr. Taylor married Miss Alice Parr, of New York city, eight years ago. He spent five years in Panama as a United States marine engineer His health failing, he went to New Mexico in an effort to regain it. From there he came home February 18th, 1911.

The deceased was a member of the Boys' Brigade in this city and had hundreds of friends here, all of whom will deeply sympathize with the bereaved parents, brother and sisters, and wife and children.

Among those from out-of-town, who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Johnson, of Waycross, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Bristow, of Greensboro, N. C.; Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. Bristow being sisters of the deceased, and Mrs. Baxter Ozment, of Charlotte, N. C., who is spending some time in the city at her old home.

If you cannot call at J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., store today, send them 25 cents by mail and they will send you a package, promptly, charges paid.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co., have been able to secure only a limited supply of the specific, so great is the demand, and you should not delay taking advantage of the liberal offer they are making this week.

COW ORDINANCE WILL STAND

Council Declines to Take Any Action Toward Modification of Measure. Business Men With the Council.

Ignoring entirely the request of a large number of cow owners and many of their friends and paying heed to suggestions of business men, the City Council in regular weekly session yesterday afternoon declined to take any action on the petition presented at the last meeting, signed by 746 electors, for a change in the ordinance relative to the keeping of cows in the city so the cow would be placed under the same rules and regulations as the horse.

In declining to recede one iota from its former position, the Council upholds the city superintendent of health, who is lending his best efforts to bring about better health and sanitary conditions in Wilmington. The ordinance is now in force and, it is presumed, will be enforced beginning today. The matter was discussed for nearly two hours, during which time several prominent citizens spoke heartily in favor of the ordinance and urged the Council to stand by Dr. Nesbitt, pointing out that they considered the Council could not now afford to recede in face of the threats of a recall, though the leaders of the recall can be easily traced to the whiskey element. The cow ordinance has been involved in the recall proposition, therefore until there is some general denial the supporters of the cow are placed in the light of favoring the removal of the Council because their cow may be interfered with, although some of the owners of cows have stated emphatically that they have nothing to do with the recall. The Council was asked at the meeting yesterday to wipe out the boundary line marking the territory in which only one cow may be kept and put the whole city on an equal basis, arguing, not without some justification, that if it is unhealthy to keep more than one cow on the north side of Castle street then in the name of common sense it is unhealthy to keep cows on the south side of the same street. In reply to request the Council stated that the idea is to later extend the territory in which only one cow may be kept. The ordinance, adopted some weeks ago, and which is now in force, is as follows:

"Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Wilmington, North Carolina:

"Section 1. It shall be unlawful to keep or maintain any cow stable in the city of Wilmington within a radius of 50 feet of any dwelling house therein.

"Section 2. That it shall be unlawful to keep more than one cow on any lot or premises within the following prescribed limits of the city of Wilmington, to-wit: Within that portion bounded on the west by Cape Fear river, on the south by the south side of Castle street, on the east by the east side of Tenth street, on the north by the right of way of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad.

"Section 3. Every person, firm or corporation keeping a cow within the limits described in Section two hereof, shall have therefor a stable wherein such cow shall be kept, such stable shall have a cement floor and gutter, and be equipped with a brick pit, tightly covered and fly-proof, in which droppings must be placed daily.

"Section 4. That all stables herein provided for shall be kept clean, and shall be disinfected and attended to in such manner, and under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed from time to time by ordinance under direction of the superintendent of health.

"Section 5. Any person, firm or corporation violating any provision of this ordinance shall be fined $5 for each and every offense.

"Section 6. That this ordinance shall be in force and effect from and after July 25, 1911."

Whether or not the Council would have granted any modification of the measure had the recall proposition not bobbed up last week is not, of course, known, but it is certain that the springing of the movement for a recall at that time did not help matters any from the standpoint of owners of cows. There is reason to believe that the Council would have been willing to grant some changes in the law rather than go to the expense of any election on the proposition. The threat to recall the Councilmen changed the matter considerably and none was disposed at the meeting yesterday to give any relief whatever.

Mayor Smith presided with all members in attendance; also Capt. Thos. D. Meares, the clerk; City Attorney McClammy; Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, superintendent of health; a delegation of citizens including Messrs. D L. Gore, L. B. Rogers, F. L. Huggins, J. A. Taylor, John H. Brown, L. W. Moore, D. J. Fergus, A. B. Skelding, E. C. Craft, Chas. N. Evans, A. D. Wessell, Sr., L. H. Hunt, Iredell Meares, George Rountree, B F. Keith, Hugh MacRae, W. P. Mangum Turner, G. J. Boney, William Niestlie and others, some of whom spoke on the cow ordinance.

A communication was read from Mr. N. E. Bunting stating that he intended to ask Council to pass an ordinance requiring that teams go slow by churches during services, court houses and other public places and in going by homes where there is sickness. A letter was read from Dr. W. S. Rankin, secretary of the State Board of Health, stating that inasmuch as he had been drawn into the cow ordinance matter that he desired to say he would prefer the same regulations for the cow as the horse but banishment of the cow from the city would be preferable to present conditions. A petition, signed by 146 owners of hogs, was read asking that the time for the hog ordinance to go into effect be extended until December 15th, in order to give time to dispose of the swine. No action was taken.

The delegation of citizens was then heard. It developed that practically all were present with reference to the cow ordinance, some to ask that the measure be modified, while the great majority desired to express their confidence in the Councilmen and urge them to stand by their superintendent of health.

The first speaker was Mr. William

THE CHARTER APPLIED FOR

Meeting of Stockholders of Carolina Metal Products Company Yesterday Afternoon—Will Elect Officers Today.

An euthusiastic meeting of the subscribers to the stock of the Carolina Metal Products Company was held in the offices of Kenan & Stacy, attorneys for the company, in the Southern Building, yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The articles of incorporation were read and unanimously ratified, and sent to Raleigh last night for the signature of the Secretary of State, who is expected to grant the charter this morning.

Mr. John P. Council was chairman of the meeting and Mr. Meares Harries acted as secretary. Mr. Perry Van Horne, general manager of the Canton Culvert Co., of Canton, Ohio, the parent concern, addressed the meeting and optimistically outlined the prospects for the success of the company and the great possibilities for such a manufacturing industry in this city. Mr. Van Horn has been very deeply impressed with the natural advantages of Wilmington and is imbued with the idea that there is no place in North Carolina it's equal for a manufacturing enterprise. Mr. Geo. A. Simpson, special representative of the Canton Culvert Company, to whose efforts is due the promise of the new enterprise, also spoke enthusiastically, referring to the many advantages that will result to Wilmington and the surrounding section from the acquisition of the new industry, and pointed out how it will serve to attract many other desirable manufacturing enterprises to the metropolis of North Carolina.

The meeting was not only enthusiastic but harmonious throughout, and was well attended by the stockholders in the new enterprise. Every one present seemed to be enthused over the bright prospects of the company, which will most likely have products for the market within a year. A number of matters of business were considered and it was decided to hold another meeting this afternoon at 4 o'clock for the purpose of selecting the officers and directors. The meeting will be held at the offices of Kenan & Stacy.

The incorporators applying for the charter are: Messrs. Theodore G. Empie, John H. Kuck, Graham Kenan, S. M. Boatwright and J. W. Murchison.

Following the organization of the company and the election of officers and directors the work of erecting the plant and installing the machinery will go forward as rapidly as possible.

POST DATER-STAMP COMPANY.

Increasing Interest in Enterprise—A Wilmington Institution.

Mr. Peed, financial agent of the Post Dater-Stamp Co., which is being launched here as a Wilmington enterprise, was delighted yesterday with the responses to the company's stock invitation, the investment being taken rapidly. Subscriptions yesterday increased 500 per cent. over the first day's opening of the books and an even larger record is likely to be established today. Not only are inquiries being made from Wilmington, but investors in adjoining towns are becoming interested and are sending in their subscriptions rapidly. As a Wilmington institution, the enterprise commends itself very highly to the people of this city especially. Mr. Peed is very glad to discuss the proposition with anyone interested and may be seen at his office in the Southern Building.

ORTON IMPROVEMENTS.

Granite Steps Being Put in and Portico Being Tiled.

In line with the progressive management of The Orton, granite steps are being laid to the main entrance and the front portico is being handsomely tiled to correspond with the lobby of the hostelry. The material has been on the ground for several days and work on the improvements was begun yesterday. The tiling and granite work is being done by Mr. J. Carewe, an expert in his line, who did the handsome tiling and marble work in the main lobby of The Orton. The improvements will be completed within the next week or ten days.

Trunks Are Awaiting Owner.

Four trunks were carried to police headquarters yesterday from the steamer Wilmington wharf, where they were taken, evidently through mistake, last Saturday. Cards attached to the trunks show that they are the property of Mrs. M. M. Orr, of Schenectady, New York, who arrived in Wilmington Saturday afternoon from the South. She gave a negro hackman the checks to the baggage and told him to get the trunks to the boat in time for departure at 2 o'clock. The trunks were carried to the steamer Wilmington wharf, where they remained until yesterday. The woman most likely went away on the Clyde Line to New York.

CHANGES AT CITY MARKET.

Conditions Will be Rendered More Sanitary Than at Present.

This morning Mayor Jos. D. Smith and Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, will make a thorough investigation of conditions prevalent at the market house on Front street with a view of securing the necessary information upon which to base recommendations to the City Council in regard to improving and rendering more sanitary the market house.

It is proposed to lay a concrete floor in the market house with drains that will make it possible to flush out the floor of the building every morning. The floors of the market stalls will be raised several inches.

Renters of the stalls have submitted a proposition, conditional upon the city granting them leases for a number of years, to install refrigerator show cases, making it practically impossible for flies to get at the meat and vegetables on sale and contaminate it with germs. The entire building will also be screened.

Concrete pavements will be laid in the alleys on the north and south sides of the market building and in the future the country carts will be required to dispose of their goods from these alleys, instead of from Front street, between Orange and Dock, as heretofore. The fish carts will be required to remove to the wharf at the rear of the market house.

The proposed changes will render the market house and surrounding section far more sanitary than under the existing conditions and they will doubtless meet with public approval.

Fainted While in Water.

A Miss Harvey, who is spending the Summer at one of the cottages on Wrightsville Beach, suffered a fainting spell while surf bathing in front of the Seashore Hotel yesterday afternoon. Miss Harvey was standing in water about three feet deep when she suddenly fell. Noticing that she did not struggle to get up, several bathers nearby went to her assistance and carried her to the beach, where she was revived. It was stated last night that Miss Harvey suffered no ill effects from the incident.

SECOND DAY SUPERIOR COURT

Buck Alderman Sentenced to Five Years in State Penitentiary—No Verdict in Stanley Case Last Night.

With less than a dozen cases disposed of and with a jury out last night for five hours on a trivial case and failing to reach a verdict in that time, the wheels of justice did not revolve quite as rapidly as had been expected at the second day's session of Superior Court yesterday and there are still a large number of minor cases on the docket.

Features of yesterday's proceedings were the sentence of five years in the State penitentiary imposed upon Buck Alderman, colored, for breaking into a store and stealing a typewriter and watch, the sentence of two years on the public roads of New Hanover county imposed on Ernest Jenkins, for assault with a deadly weapon, and the failure of the jury in the case of D. N. Stanley, charged with violating the driving ordinance, to reach a verdict, after being out five hours last night.

In the case of Mr. A. W. Ek, charged with perjury, Judge E. B. Cline ruled that there was no ground for a perjury charge in a civil action such as was involved in this case and upon his order a verdict of not guilty was entered.

Paul L. Taylor, colored, charged with the larceny of a sack of coal from the Springer Coal Company, was declared not guilty. The negro, while on the stand, kept the court considerably amused by his language, and his original way of expressing his thoughts. He claimed that he had collected the coal along the wharf, and that he had hidden the sack under one of the warehouses of the Springer Coal Company until he had an opportunity to carry it home. Setting forth his reason for concealing the coal, Taylor said: "We sometimes collect little things and then kiver them up so our com-er-rades might not misplace them from us." Judge Cline declared that this was the most diplomatic way of stating that an article had to be hidden to keep it from being stolen that he had ever heard.

A nol pros with leave was taken in the case of William Nixon, colored, charged with larceny.

Peter Farrow, a negro, pleaded guilty to disturbing a religious congregation, and was fined $5 and costs.

Ernest Jenkins, colored, was sentenced to two years on the county roads for assault with a deadly weapon upon Mounted Officers Frank George and J. H. Davis last Winter. Jenkins fired a pistol at the officers, the bullet passing between them.

After a number of witnesses had been examined in the case of Buck Anderson, colored, charged with larceny, the negro sprung a surprise by stating that he was guilty, and that he had entered an office and stolen a typewriter. Following the arguments of counsel for the State, during the course of which the many burglaries that have occurred here recently were stressed, Judge Cline sentenced the negro to a term of five years in the State penitentiary at Raleigh.

Jesse Mason, white, who appealed from a fine of $25 and costs in the Recorder's court in a case charging assault with a deadly weapon, was fined $50 and costs or 60 days on the county roads. It was brought out at the trial yesterday that Mason is now at liberty on a conditional pardon from the Governor of the State.

In the case of Mr. D. N. Stanley, charged with violating the driving ordinances of the city of Wilmington, the jury failed to reach a verdict up to 11 o'clock last night, and, acting on the orders of Judge Cline, Capt. W. N. Harriss, deputy clerk to the Superior Court, excused the jury for the night. Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox had the jury in charge last night from 6 until 11 o'clock.

Mr. Stanley appealed from a sentence of costs imposed in the Recorder's court. It is charged that he violated the driving ordinance in that the string to which the weight used for hitching was attached was too small to be of any service.

POPULAR YOUNG LADY DEAD

Miss Sallie A. Murphy Passed Away Yesterday Morning—Funeral.

Hundreds of devoted friends in this city and elsewhere learned with profound regret of the death of Miss Sallie A. Murphy, who was one of the city's most popular young ladies, which occurred at the family residence, No. 410 North Third street, at 11:45 o'clock yesterday morning, following an illness of six weeks of malarial fever and complications. Members of the bereaved family have the tenderest sympathy of many friends in their deep and overwhelming sorrow.

Miss Murphy was 26 years old and was a young woman of a most lovable Christian character. She endeared herself to all within the circle of acquaintance. She was a member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian church and was a Christian worker. For several years Miss Murphy held the position of district chief operator for the Southern Bell Telephone Company. Surviving are her mother, Mrs. S. M. Murphy, three sisters, Mrs. E. W. Fonvelle, Mrs. C. P. Gorman and Miss Katie Murphy, of this city, and four brothers, Messrs. Moseley and W. T. Murphy, of this city, and Messrs. P. H. and Garland Murphy, of Jacksonville, Fla., who have the sympathy of a great many friends in their bereavement.

The funeral services will be held at 4 o'clock this morning from the late residence, conducted by the Christian Endeavor Society of St. Andrew's church, and Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure, the pastor. Miss Murphy was a very active member of the Christian Endeavor Society as well as a great worker in the Sunday school. The interment will be in Bellevue.

Headed by two of the strongest films manufactured in the past year and two of the very latest, only being placed on the market yesterday, the Bijou will today offer a big and bright bill. As is customary there will be a complete change in every department and each change will be of the freshest and snappiest type. In the music line a rare collection of sparkling gems will be offered, and among which Mr. Frank Banks, Wilmington's favorite balladist, will shine as the star. He has something swell and jolly for his friends today. The other musical numbers will be great treats and will tickle the ear and make the heart beat merrily.

One of the big top-liner films mentioned for today is Lubin's masterpiece, "The Stranger in Camp." It tells a pathetic story in most vivid manner. How a young wife is compelled to flee from her drunken husband, how she meets the man she really loves and then the coming back into her life of her husband. The volcanic motion is graphically depicted and is startling and exciting. The end, which is brought around in surprising and novel manner, is, however, one of happiness.

The second expecptional film on today's bill is "It Happened in the West," and really partakes of the nature of one of the greatest dramatic offerings of the past season. It is very similar to "The Squaw Man," and it is enacted by a large company of well-known players. The scenes are laid both in the rugged American west and in picturesque England. The story is a heart-gripper. Today's Bijou bill is indeed a superb one, and should not be missed.

Say Rescue Was a "Joke."

It was stated yesterday that the report printed in yesterday's paper relative to the rescue of two boys from drowning at Greenville Sound by two young ladies, was given out as a joke and did not actually take place. The item was written and brought to The Star office by one of those concerned and was published in good faith, no intimation being made that it was "a joke", or it most certainly would not have been given space. The person furnishing the item will not get any more of his "jokes" published in The Star, however.

MAFFITT ISLAND EPISODE

Interesting Story of the Lower Cape Fear Told by Navigator.

Since mention of Maffitt Island was made in connection with the rescue of two men early Monday morning by the tug Sea King a number of inquiries as to its location, has resulted in the following interesting interview yesterday with an "old salt" of the local port:

"A great many people are inquiring about the location of Maffitt Island, four miles from Southport and near Snow's Marsh Island. A few years ago there was a captain on a cruise along the coast making surveys and discoveries on the Cape Fear river. This captain had very crude instruments for naavigation; his compass bowl was a gourd with chips floating about in it and this was his only means of getting his course. In cloudy weather he worked his way by dead reckoning. At this time there were no logs or log lines invented, or lead line with the lead to take the soundings not even any means to find the depth of water he had on deck. This small vessel was sent out to search or to find the lost colonies which were landed in the vicinity of Roanoke Island. The first white child born on this island was Virginia Dare, and the vessel bore that name. They appeared at this point, like unto Robinson Cruso, with his servant and companion, Friday. After making discoveries he proceeded through the sounds and finally reached Cape Fear River. Within five miles of the mouth of the river he stranded on the island mentioned, which was given the name of Maffitt Island. The vessel Virginia Dare was left in charge of Friday, while the gallant captain was trying to intercept some passing vessel with a view of being rescued and brought ashore. It was in the month of February, one cold morning with the thermometer below zero, when a tug proceeding up the Cape Fear discovered them on the island. Soon afterwards the crew saw Capt. Friday shake off his shoes and slide down in the mud and move toward the tug waving with every step to attract attention. A boat was lowered and sent to see who the stranger was. He said his name was Robinson Cruso and he left his good man Friday to take charge of Virginia Dare. Since this incident it has been called Maffitt Island in honor of our townsman."

McRae, Ga., July 25.—The first bale of the 1911 cotton crop to be marketed was brought here today by T. J. Smith, of this county. It weighed an even 500 pounds, was bought for 25 cents a pound by T. W. Booth.

The Coffee With a History

In 1815, after his glorious victory over the British at Chalmette, Andrew Jackson treated his troops to French Market Coffee at the famous old French Market in New Orleans. For over a hundred years back the finale of every Mardi-Gras Ball was to sip a cup of this famous coffee as a "night-cap." Then this famous beverage could be had nowhere else. History repeats itself. You may now serve it daily at your own table. For the old French Market blend is perpetuated by

FURTHER DECLINE IN COTTON

Renewed General Selling Inspired by Unfavorable Trade Advices—July 19 Points Lower, August from 35 to 40.

New York, July 25.—There was another sensational decline in the cotton market today with renewed general selling inspired by unfavorable foreign trade advices, and increased confidence in a favorable August bureau report and with the close weak, net unchanged on July but 19 points lower on August and from 35 to 40 points under the closing figures of yesterday on new crop positions, which, of course, made new low records for the season.

The market opened easy, at an advance of two points on July, but generally 9 to 16 points lower in response to disappointing cables and selling by people who had bought yesterday for a reaction. A rally of about 10 points following on covering and trade buying, but the market weakened again toward midday on reports that apprehension of a famine in India were demoralizing the Manchester market, and rumors that preliminary returns to the National Ginners' Association pointed to an August bureau report of about 90.9 per cent. compared with 88.2 per cent. last month. Selling became general on these reports, and the lowest levels of the day ere reached in the late trading, December selling at 11.46, and January at 11.40. Near positions continued relatively quiet and steady and July held well up to 13.30, the closing price of yesterday, but August broke to 12.40, a new low record for the season, and a net decline of about 25 points. Last prices were up from the lowest on August, but at the lowest point of the day on new crop positions, for while covering was very heavy below 11½c. for Fall and Winter positions, selling continued active for both Southern and local account. The relative steadiness of July was attributed to lack of interest in that position and the absence of offerings while it is supposed that holders of the local stock give support when necessary in order to protect the basis. The private cables from Liverpool reported an unfavorable breaking of the ndian monsoon and fears that the crops of food grains would be insufficient.

Receipts, 724 bales, against 300 last week and 3,710 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans, 90 bales, against 1,434 last year, and at Houston, 290 bales, against 961 last year.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

New York, July 25.—The liquidation in the cotton markets is holding up trade in goods as buyers and sellers are uncertain of values. Men's wear lines for spring are being opened daily and confirmation of some large orders on staple serges have been received. Yarns are easy. The silk trade is generally quiet.

ELECTRIC ALARM SYSTEM.

Norfolk & Western Installing New Device at Railroad Crossings.

Bristol, Va., July 25.—A carload of material has arrived here and is on the N. & W. yards, to be used in the construction of an electric signal system for the N. & W. company in the city and suburbs. Electric bells will be installed at all crossings of the company, including those in the city and suburbs.

By this process persons with horses and teams are not nearly so likely to be caught on crossings and killed. The electric bells at the crossings will begin to ring vigorously when a train is within two or three hundred yards, and will continue to ring until the train has passed over the crossin.

Electricians are expected here at once to install the new system.

UNSETTLED IN STOCK MARKET

Caused by Events Both at Home and Abroad—Trading Increased Largely and Market Lost Indifferent Tone.

New York, July 25.—Events at home and abroad combined to unsettle the stock market today. The order of the Inter-State Commerce Commission for a readjustment of trans-continental freight rates and reports of the present gravity of the situation in Europe as regards Morocco were of sufficient influence to bring on a heavy selling movement. The market lost its indifferent tone and trading increased largely. Wall Street was more concerned with the broad principle of railroad rate regulation enunciated by the Inter-State commerce commission than in the reductions in rates ordered. Varying views were expressed as to the effect upon security values, but the situation is so complicated that no clearly outlined opinion was evolved. The chief effect of the decision as it concerned the stock market seemed to be a bear attack, for which it furnished a reasonable excuse.

The influence of the Moroccan situation was felt in this market chiefly on account of selling here for foreign account.

The quarterly report of the United States Steel Corporation showed the expected improvement in earnings. The total was quite in accord with previous estimates, and was accepted as confirming the reports of slowly improving conditions in the steel trade. The government's weekly weather report was favorable.

Price movements in the stock market reflected the play of these influences, in a sharp break at the outset. Opening prices were from one to two points below yesterday's close. The market recovered, however, with unexpected rapidity, and was soon ruling at slightly above the previous day's final figures, the upturn perhaps representing a drive at the short interest.

This display of strength was not long maintained. The market grew steadily weaker, and in the last hour went to a point well below the high prices of the day.

The Hill shares were weak throughout, presumably on account of their expected losses through the freight rate decision. Reading and Lehigh Valley were strong features.

The bond market was steady. Total sales, par value, $2,135,000. United States bonds were unchanged, on call. Total sales of stocks today, 416,800 shares.

Niestlie, the well-known druggist. He made a most interesting talk, speaking of his connection with the local Red Cross Society, which is doing a great work especially among the colored consumptives, and of health and sanitary conditions generally in the city, declaring that sanitation is a forward word of progress in Wilmington. Mr. Niestlie made such a rattling good talk along general health lines that he neglected to dwell long enough on the cow to let one know where he stood on the ordinance, and when he had finished Councilman Tiencken asked him where he stood on the proposition. He replied that he favored keeping the cow in the city.

Next to speak was Mr. J. A. Taylor, formerly president of the Chamber of Commerce. The primary object of Mr. Taylor in appearing was to give the Councilmen assurance of support in their efforts and to urge upon them the importance of standing firm upon the ordinance. He thought the petition circulated for a recall was false, and that the owners of cows were used as a cat's paw. The petition sets out a general arraignment of the board, with no specific cause for removal worthy the consideration of an intelligent person. Mr. Taylor said he was not a cow man, but a horse man in a small way and that he would comply with the law. He said that he thought the recall talk would not amount to anything if analyzed carefully and would amount to less if an election is called. Mr. Taylor said that so far the board has acted for the best interests of the city and has done well, though probably made some mistakes—all who do anything make mistakes.

Mr. E. C. Craft, owner of two cows, who has been one of the leaders in the movement for a change in the ordinance, spoke briefly in favor of some modification and said that while he made his position plain in an article in The Star Sunday morning that he desired to repeat and emphasize that he had nothing whatever to do with any movement for a recall. He offered a suggestion to the Council that if the city is to have a cow ordinance that the measure apply to every section of the city and that a reasonable time be given all in which to dispose of their cattle.

Mr. L. W. Moore spoke in favor of the ordinance and gave several concrete instances as to why the cow should not be kept in the city, especially in the congested district. Mr. D. J. Fergus suggested that if the Council amends the ordinance that that amendment require every one owning a cow to have it 10 feet nearer their own residence than that of any one else. He was convinced that there should be a rigid inspection of the cow lots and that the cow stables should be subject to the same regulations as the horse.

Mr. Hugh MacRae said that he would like to hear from George Rountree, Esq., on the subject. Mr. Rountree, lives at Carolina Heights and therefore is not affected directly by the cow ordinance, but the Councilmen and others present were glad of the privilege to hear him on the matter. He expressed the hope that the Council would stand firm, stating that they could not do otherwise in face of the talk of recall. He said that he was approached on Monday by the opposition, but declined to appear for them, stating at the time that he expected to tender his services gratis to the Council. Mr. Rountree expressed the opinion that the petition for a recall would react against the persons who are circulating them. The names of the circulators of the petitions are sufficient to convince one as to who is really behind the movement, he said. Mr. Rountree stated that he thought it all right for the people to discuss matters from all angles, for then they are in position to take intelligent action, provided none of the talk gets into the newspapers. Dr. Nesbitt was highly commended by Mr. Rountree, who declared that in his opinion the doctor had made out an overwhelming case in favor of the ordinance in the newspaper articles which have appeared recently.

Mayor Smith explained the position of the boards and stated that when the ordinance was first proposed it was published in the newspapers that a cow ordinance would be considered at a certain meeting and all persons interested were invited to be present, but so far as he could recall not a single preson was present to protest. He said that not until the ordinance was adopted was any protest made. He might have added that the people did not know what the ordinance contained until after it was adopted, as it was not printed until the morning following the meeting, although a copy of the rough draft had been requested for publication. Had the ordinance been published before the meeting, a large delegation would very likely been present.

Mr. D. L. Gore thought Dr. Nesbitt's ordinance should be carried out. Mr. B. F. Keith said that his name was on the cow petition, but he had nothing to do with the recall. He had rather do without his cow than to see a recall election. Mr. Keith attributed so much sickness in the city to digging up streets and drinking impure water, rather than to the cow. Mr. A. D. Wessell, Sr., said he signed the petition for a change in the cow ordinance, but not for the recall. Mr. Wessell said he owes his living to his cow, as three-fourths of his nourishment is milk and butter. Dogs, he thought, do more harm than cows. Mr. Hugh MacRae said no community can be healthy if it has cows in it. He said that the city needs a good cleaning and that before such a cleaning can be gotten it is necessary to have a man like Dr. Nesbitt and a board like the Councilmen behind him. Iredell Meares, Esq., said he expressed the views of the silent citizens of the city when he urged that the medical department be sustained and that the city be given a thorough cleaning. As to the recall, he thought the movement was inoculated with typhoid fever and died. Mr. Meares said that there is not a condition of attractiveness existing in Los Angeles, Cal., but what could be secured in New Hanover county. Los Angeles a few years ago was a town of 20,000 people, now it has a population of 300,000, he said. Mr. J. G. Boney said that the Council should back the health department in every way possible. Mr. L. B. Rogers said that he is the owner of a cow, but he was present to uphold the Council in whatever action it took in the matter. Constable W. B. Savage called attention of the Council to the fact that if it is unhealthy to keep cows in the central portion of the city it is unhealthy south of Castle street and he appealed to the Council not to tax his section of the city with all the towns, but make the ordinance application to the entire city. He said the people south of Castle street are human beings, the same as on the north side, and are entitled to the same consideration.

Later on in the meeting it was decided not to take any action on the petition which was presented at the last meeting.

The contract awarded last Wednesday for paving of Front street came up for final reading, as did also the franchise to the Tidewater Power Co. to extend its tracks on Orange, between Water and Front streets, and franchise to Mr. B. A. Merritt to put track across Hanover street, between Sixth and Seventh. Mayor Smith voted against granting both franchises, and Councilman B. C. Moore voted against the latter.

The contract to lay storm sewers and necessary appurtenances on Front street in connection with the paving of the thoroughfare, was let to Mr. W. L. DeRosset for $2,194.90, his being the lowest bid. The only other bid was submitted by Mr. C. R. Humphreys and was $2,562.45. The work consists of approximately 2,000 lineal feet of sewer, ranging in size from 24 inches to 10 inches. Bids were opened last week and the contract was awarded yesterday upon recommendation of Councilman P. Q. Moore, in charge of streets.

Councilman B. C. Moore, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, said he wanted approval of the Council to purchase two blood hounds which he said could be secured at a bargain in a South Carolina town. While no formal action was taken, it was the sense of the Council that he be authorized to secure the dogs.

Must Don A Uniform.

Councilman P. Q. Moore inquired why Chief of Police John J. Fowler does not wear a uniform, stating that the question had recently been asked him by any number of people. Mayor Smith referred the interrogator to Councilman B. C. Moore, who said that he did not know of any reason why he should not wear the customary uniform. Mayor Smith and City Attorney McClammy also stated that people wanted to know why the chief does not wear a uniform. A motion was made to the effect that Councilman B. C. Moore instruct the chief to don a uniform, but the motion was later withdrawn as Councilman Moore said it was not necessary, that he would take up the matter with Mr. Fowler without the adoption of a resolution.

It was decided to meet Thursday morning at 10 o'clock to consider the matter of purchasing the existing sewerage plant.

City Attorney Herbert McClammy called the attention of the Mayor to the fact that the screen ordinance is being utterly disregarded at the Front Street Market House. The mayor said that he and Dr. Nesbitt would make an inspection of the market house this morning. Attention was also called to the need of a drain through some property across the street from the market house. Mr. A. D. Wessell, who owns one of the lots, was present and stated that he would co-operate with the Council. There are two or three other property owners and unless they give their co-operation legal action will be taken to compel them to abate the nuisance compalined of. The board adjourned at 6:20 o'clock.

Councilman P. Q. Moore made the gratifying announcement that brick are being laid on Red Cross street, between Front and Second, and that the improvement of the thoroughfare is progressing quite rapidly. The Councilman in charge of the Department of Streets received the congratulations of the other members, who were glad to learn that the permanent street work is now well under way.

THE TEXAS ELECTION

Figuring on Majorities — Campaign Committee to Meet.

Dallas, Texas, July 25.—The last step in the unofficial count showing a victory for the anti-prohibitionists in Saturday's State-wide prohibition election came overnight. The widely differing counts of various newspapers and of the Statewide headquarters on each side came to a nearly unanimous agreement upon from 5,000 to 6,000 as the anti-prohibition majority.

Saturday's meeting of the State-wide campaign committee in Fort Worth is expected to determine whether the prohibitionists will contest the election in the courts or lay plans for another election on the State-wide issue. No call for another submission election can be issued before the next regular session of the Legislature, which is not until January, 1913. Before that time there will have been an election of all State officers and members of the Legislature.

The present Legislature is "prohibition," by a small majority in both House and Senate. One of the big surprises of the election was the fact that Dallas county, including the city of Dallas, went "wet" by about 200 majority.

Richmond, Va., July 25.—It looks tonight as if the shop employes of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway and the officials of the road are dangerously near an open rupture on the question of wages. The men through representatives here ask an increase in pay of five cents an hour and the effort to secure a conference on the subject between the two parties at interest seems so far to have failed.

CAUCUS WITHOUT RESULT

Senators Unable to Settle on Wool Tariff Revision Bill.

Washington, July 25.—After more than three hours caucus Democratic Senators tonight got no nearer a decision as to their party action on the House wool tariff revision bill, now in the Senate. As a result of this indecision the caucus will be resumed tomorrow night and Senator Martin, the minority leader, will endeavor to have a full attendance.

It was developed as a result of tonight's caucus that the Senate Democrats are practically unanimous in support of the House measure. The difference in opinion exists on a question of Democratic attitude toward the LaFollette bill, in case it is offered as a substitute after the House wool measure is defeated. A number of senators expressed their desire to vote for the LaFollette substitute after the House measure upon this programme, holding that, as Democrat, the minority should stand or fall with the House bill.

Senator Martin brought the matter squarely before the caucus by offering a resolution pledging the Senate minority's support to the House bill, and to no other. No action upon it was taken.

Senators Bailey, Reed and Williams all spoke in advocacy of support to the LaFollette bill if the Democratic measure failed.

Without expectation of accomplishing any result beyond the exchange of views, the Democratic senators went into caucus at eight o'clock tonight to consider wool tariff legislation. They were much divided on the question.

Probably the most startling development was the discovery in the early afternoon, that there was a possibility of the passage of the House wool bill through the aid of insurgent Republican votes. The report to the effect became current through expressions of Senator Poindexter, of Washington, an insurgent who is friendly to the House bill and the discovery created consternation on the Republican side of the chamber.

There was an immediate canvass of the situation and it was found that some of those mentioned as favorable to the House bill had been placed in a false position. Three or four of the insurgents were found to have said that they would accept the House bill if no other measure could be passed, but so far as could be determined, the number was not sufficient to insure favorable action, and by nightfall, the leaders of the regular Republicans had regained their equanimity and were predicting that there would be no tariff legislation during the present session.

The fact that at least a few of the insurgents may vote for the House bill has stirred the Democrats to make a general counting of noses. They have only 40 Democratic votes, rendering it necessary to get six more in order to effect legislation. They have therefore telegraphed Senator Hoke Smith, of Georgia, urging him to come immediately to Washington and qualify in order to be in position to vote on Thursday.

Atlanta, Ga., July 25.—Up to a late hour tonight, Governor Smith had not received any telegrams from the Democratic leaders of the Senate urging him to go to Washington and qualify as Senator, in order to vote Thursday on the wool tariff revision bill, when it comes up in the Senate.

The governor's private secretary said the governor would make no statement as to what he would do until after he received the messages which are reported to have been sent.

Governor Smith was elected United States Senator by the Legislature now in session, in succession to the late A. S. Clay. The ad interim appointee, Senator Joseph A. Terrell, resigned his seat in the Senate immediately after the election of Governor Smith, and since then Georgia has had only one representative in the upper branch of Congress, the Senators-elect having declined, up to this time, to resign the governorship.

RECIPROCITY IN CANADA.

Attitude of Premier Laurier and Liberal Government.

Ottawa, Ont., July 25.—Premier Laurier and the Liberal government of Canada today decided to place their political future in the hands of the electorate of the Dominion to be decided almost entirely upon the reciprocity issue. A general election will be called within two months and upon its result which will be governed largely by the attitude of the people for or against reciprocity, will depend the continued political ascendency of the Liberal party. Premier Laurier and his supporters are confident that they have correctly guaged sentiment and that the majority of the people believe with them that reciprocity with the United States should be enacted.

If the Liberals are returned to power the Fielding-Knox agreement will be passed and put in effect before Christmas. If the Conservatices, Mr. Borden, the present leader of the opposition will become prime minister, and the reciprocity measure will be dead.

These concrete lines were drawn at caucuss of both parties held today. The conservatives decided that obstruction would be continued until the government drooped the reciprocity measure. The Liberals then met and determined to press the measure until the people thoroughly understood the fact that the minority in Parliament was assuming the right of the majority to govern and that an election must be held to discipline them.

Parliament probably will be dissolved in two weeks, and an election date will be fixed as soon as voters' lists can be prepared. The last week of September or the first week of October from present indications will be selected.

Machine Skids and Plunges Over 15-Foot Embankment.

New York, July 24.—Dr. Thomas G. Sherwood, of 107 West 37th street, one of the best known veterinary surgeons in the United States, was killed late this afternoon when an automobile which he was driving himself, skidded on the wet new wood-block pavement on the Pelham Parkway, just east of the Williamsbridge road, and fell over a 15-foot embankment.

Mrs. Sherwood, who was with her husband at the time, was thrown from the car as it whirled around on the slippery road, but was not seriously injured. She was standing in the road screaming for help when the car went over the embankment. She immediately ran down the hill after it and succeeded in extricating her husband.

Many automobilists have complained that this new road, which the city built especially for motor cars, is dangerous when it becomes wet.

Rock Island, Ill., July 24.—The last of the diamonds stolen in the $15,000 Chapin robbery at Rochester, N. Y., last December, was found today in a local pawnshop, where it had been sold by Bessie Lewis, colored, the friend of the confessed thief, Samuel Wynn. The diamond was an heirloom, valued at $2,500. It was sold for $175. The diamonds were stolen from the family of Charles Chapin. Wynn is in jail in Rocnester. Bessie Lewis is held here.

The Burning Question

is the money question. It's on most people's minds. Have you ever given it a thought? What are you doing with your earnings? Letting it go each week with nothing to show for it? You should put a stop to that at once by opening a savings account at our bank, and at the end of the year you have something to show for your labor, and the best time to start is right now. One dollar will do it.
